

FROM THE RABBI

As I sit to write to you, the summer sun is blazing, the wind is wafting through the windows, and the red and gold leaves of autumn seem far-off. I still have sand between my toes from a month of lifeguarding and teaching children to swim at Camp Ramah in New England. This column is the first of my new four-year term as your Rabbi. Beginnings are pregnant with excitement, expectation and possibility. I am excited to have the opportunity to serve the Emanuel Synagogue family for the next four years. There are abundant positive directions we can chart together during that time. I expect to learn, grow and improve during these coming years. It has been a blessing to work with talented, committed, creative and capable partners on the Emanuel staff and among our lay leadership. It is a joy to come into daily contact with our people in all the moments of your lives, mundane and sublime, painful and exalted. Together, we are creating new possibilities built on the accomplishments, inspiration and sacrifice of those who came before us. This is the Jewish way. This is the Emanuel tradition.

As we embark on the passage towards our centennial in 2019, I invite everyone in the Emanuel Family to join in imagining the possibilities: What we might be like as a congregation at 100? What is your vision of an Emanuel Synagogue at our best? What must we continue and strengthen? What might we change?

What can we do that we have not even considered? I welcome your thoughts and visions. Please share them in person, by phone, email and even by surface mail.

An important thought as the Yamim Nora'im (Days of Awe) are upon us: In June, at a community gathering, I witnessed two Emanuel congregants who had not spoken in several years stand together in close conversation, shake hands, and part with smiles on their faces. This was a chance taken: to make amends for angry words and to let go of long-festered resentment. To make peace with another human being is the highest mitzvah of the Yamim Nora'im. Our sages teach that forgiveness and atonement for offenses between people may only be settled between those people. The Holy One cannot do it for us. But with G-d's help and blessing, we can find our way to walk the "pathways of peace." This is our deep moral responsibility, and it can be done if we summon the courage and generosity of spirit from deep within our souls.

I am grateful for the opportunity to continue to serve as teacher, leader, guide and minyan-member of this extraordinary congregation. May our Creator grant us all strength wisdom, kindness and love in the coming year. Together, may we make 5771 a year of accomplishment!

Debbie, Gabrielle, Sharone, Ilan and I join in wishing the Emanuel Family Leshanah Tovah Tikatievu. May you be written in the Book of Life for a Good Year!

B'vrachab (with blessing),

— David J. Small

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE — HELP RENEW YOURSELF AND THE EMANUEL FOR A GOOD YEAR ... by Alan S. Parker

In the Avinu Mal-kenu prayer chanted on Yom Kippur, we pray that God help us to be renewed for a good year. As Rabbi Dov Peretz Elkins asks in his book on Yom Kippur Readings, "How do we find renewal, refreshment and reinvigorate our spiritual lives?"

To answer that question, Rabbi Elkins recounts the story of Brooklyn-born Robert Kirsch, a prolific writer who died at age 58. As the long-time book critic for the Los Angeles Times, Mr. Kirsch wrote more book reviews than any modern critic and authored a dozen books in his spare time. Mr. Kirsch summed up this career and his values: "In the end all of it is an attempt to recapture Coney Island and the lesson I learned there: 'Live, read, grow and be a Mensch!'"

If you want to seek renewal for yourself and the Emanuel as we enter the New Year:

1. Attend one daily Minyan service every month. For only thirty minutes, you can show your support for those who are in a period of mourning or observing Yahrzeit. Your presence is counted and will be significant and meaningful to others and yourself. Sign up in advance on our website so that we can ensure uninterrupted Minyanim.

2. Learn something new by participating in one of our upcoming Adult Education courses.

3. Get involved with our B'Yadenu (Social action) committee. Contact Risa Davidson about new projects and efforts in support of Israel.

4. Experience the mitzvah of giving by donating to our Annual Giving/ Kol Nidre campaign. Support your spiritual Jewish home as generations of Emanuel members have for our benefit. We've made it easy to make a pledge (see our website) and have added an opportunity to give during Yom Kippur. We are looking for 100% participation.

5. Meet new friends by volunteering to join our other lay leaders with whatever time commitment you can give. Please let me or Laurie Leader, our new Executive Director, know your interests and we will find a match for you.

6. Become involved with one or more of our affiliate organizations:

Sisterhood, Brotherhood and the Minyonaires and have fun together and work on worthwhile projects. Or help us to connect to new members (contact Francene Weingast).

7. Participate in Shabbat services by davening, reading Torah or chanting a Haftarah. Contact Mr. Pinchover or Hazzen Cohn to express your interest. Our clergy will support you at whatever level you would like.

8. Deliver a care package to someone who is ill or confined to home. Our Caring Committee makes these trips throughout the year. Make someone else feel better with your support. Contact Joanne Pasternack.

SUKKOT HOME OBSERVANCE

The Festival of Sukkot offers several opportunities for home observances.

- ✦ Blessing and waving the arba minim, a.k.a. the lulav and etrog, can be done every day of the Festival except on Shabbat. Sitting in the sukkah can be done any day of the festival.
- ✦ Don't own a lulav and etrog? Come use the set we have at Emanuel.
- ✦ Don't have a sukkah this year? Visit a friend or neighbor who has one. Also, the sukkah at the Emanuel is available for you.
- ✦ Eating a meal or snack and even sleeping in the sukkah enhances the fulfillment of the mitzvah, "To dwell in the sukkah."

The blessings that are said for each of these mitzvot are included below:

Baruch atah adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu leisheiv basukkah	ברוך אתה ה', אלוהינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו
Baruch atah adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu al n'tilat lulav.	ברוך אתה ה', אלוהינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו וצונו על נטילת לולב
Baruch atah adonai eloheinu melech ha'olam shecheyanu v'kiy'manu v'higyanu lazman hazeh.	ברוך אתה ה', אלוהינו מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו והגיענו לזמן הזה

TISHA B'AV REFLECTIONS 5770

by Rabbi David Small

This poem (at right), first read in July at the Emanuel Synagogue during the Communal reading of Aicha (Lamentations) was written as a Tisha B'Av liturgy, in the spirit of centuries of Jewish poems of mourning and reflection on the anniversary of catastrophes, e.g., the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem (twice), the Expulsion from Spain and other persecutions and massacres that have been perpetrated against our people on this date. During the Holocaust, the Nazis and their willing accomplices chose 9 Av and other significant Jewish dates to schedule mass murders, deportations and other humiliations. Today, the President of Iran, backed by the ruling council of Islamic clerics, has declared his intention to wipe Israel off the face of the Earth. Iran has armed terrorists on Israel's borders with rockets and other weapons, acquired and test-fired ballistic missiles and is enriching uranium. These verses represent a look at the past through the prism of today's events.

We sit safe in suburban sanctuary
Peer back through time
So sad and scary

When Zion's streets ran red with blood
And no force served to halt the flood
Of death and destruction

Hobnailed boots trod on
The routes once walked by Judah's Priests and pilgrims

This date marked by anguish dark
with pain and confusion

Our enemies
In cruel glee
Chose this night to do their worst

As if to say "Your G-d is away
Or else has decreed us to be first
While you poor Jew
Will feel our feet upon your throat
No expiation for your situation
No oil no loaves no bull no goat"

The people groan
The mothers moan
The night they drove old Zion down

Remember when we sat alone
Without a land
Without a home
No priest no Levite no king no crown

Today imams
build their bombs
And they intend to use them

Let us mourn but not too long
Tonight is time for sad old songs
But soon enough we must get tough
Our work resume; it will be rough

We must be bold, save Jerusalem of Gold
Call the free world to refuse them.
For the imams build their bombs
And they intend to use them.

NOTES FROM THE CANTOR

NUSAH OF THE HIGH HOLY DAYS

by Hazzan Sanford Cohn

How could I possibly write a column on a topic that took a year to study in seminary? Just to put us all in the mood for the upcoming holidays, I'd like to give a brief overview of the special melodies we hear in synagogue at this time of year.

The first melody is the one that pervades the evening services. We hear it for "Bar'chu" and for every prayer thereafter. This is a prime example of a "Misinai" tune, that is, it is so old and so a part of our tradition as if it came down from Mt. Sinai along with the Torah. ("Kol Nidrey" and "Aleynu" are also examples of Misinai melodies.)

Next, there are special melodies for the morning blessings and for the Shaharit service that follows. One of the most recognizable themes for this section includes "Amen" sung in a descending minor triad, evoking both the solemnity and the dignity of the day.

For the Musaf service, many of the themes from Shaharit are repeated. On Rosh Hashana, each of the three special sections, Malchuyot, Zichronot and Shofrot, has a particular nusah. The first reflects majestic themes of the kingship verses, reminding us that G-d is Sovereign of the world. Different melodic motifs accentuate the themes of remembrance and the blasting of the Shofar.

On Yom Kippur we chant a different set of melodies for the S'lihot sections of the services. Here we hear some plaintive tunes as we ask for G-d's forgiveness. Ironically, when we declare our communal sins in "Ashamnu," the melody almost sounds joyful. This may be because our ability to approach the Almighty directly to confess our transgressions is really something to celebrate and be thankful for.

I hope that you listen for these various themes in our High Holy Day liturgy. Please accept my warmest wishes for a Shana tova um'tuka.

9. Invite someone to attend Friday night Shabbat services at the Emanuel and then enjoy a Shabbat dinner together.

10. Share your ideas and willingness to work on helping us to build a stronger, more vibrant Jewish community.

I look forward to addressing the congregation and sharing more thoughts about the Emanuel during my Kol Nidre message during these High Holy Days. Until then, on behalf of Michele, Jordan and Lauren I wish you and your family a happy healthy new year.

May we together make 5771 a year of renewal and refreshment for ourselves and The Emanuel.

2010 ANNUAL FALL MUM SALE

MEET OUR RABBINIC INTERNS

This year we will have two Rabbinic Interns, Ami Hersh and Ari Saks. This has been made possible through a generous grant from an anonymous donor and a new partnership with The Hillel Foundation at The University of Hartford. Our Rabbinic Interns will be leading Shabbat services at the University of Hartford on Friday evenings and will join us at The Emanuel Synagogue for the rest of Shabbat and on Sundays. They will facilitate Bar/Bat Mitzvah Club on Shabbat mornings, teach in our school on Sundays and participate in other synagogue activities.

Ami Hersh grew up in Providence, RI and graduated from the University of Hartford. He taught at Solomon Schechter of West Hartford before attending rabbinical school. Ami has also served as Assistant Director of Camp Ramah in Nyack. He and his wife have one son. Ami says, “When a new year begins we are able to dream our greatest dreams, and salivate over the possibilities ahead. I’m excited that in the year to come my dreams and your dreams will be intertwined. I look forward to learning more about what it means to be a rabbi, a teacher, a student and a member of a holy community with each of you. Thank you in advance for all that you will do to help me along the path to becoming a rabbi.”

Ari Saks is a 4th year rabbinical student at the Jewish Theological Seminary. He has worked as a teacher and Rosh Edah (unit head) at Camp Ramah in the Poconos, as a head teacher at the Society for the Advancement of Judaism and as a Torah reader and teacher at Park Avenue Synagogue, just to name a few. He and his wife have traveled to India, Guatemala, Thailand and Vietnam. Ari says, “I’ve loved experiencing new cultures during these trips and have especially enjoyed understanding their religious makeup. I’ve learned from these experiences that there is much more that unites us than separates us as humanity and often the way to connect with each other is through the lens of our own particular religious heritage. I’m excited to go on that path with you and to learn from each other so that we can expand our understanding of what it means to be a Jew in 21st century of America.”

Both Ami and Ari have spent the past academic year studying in Israel. We are looking forward to working with them and to our new partnership with The University of Hartford Hillel.

SCHOOL NEWS

by Judith T. Fox, Director of Education

Once again we have a full and diverse schedule of our High Holy Day family services. We have divided the services into four age groups. Many parents have asked what to do if they have children in more than one group. You may either choose one service for the entire family that best meets your needs or attend services with your youngest child and have your older child(ren) attend their own service with a friend's family. Please note that the 6th and 7th grade service is for students only.

The various services for preschool through 5th grade are family services and parents are encouraged to attend and participate with their children. We have found that these services are much more effective when parents are there to guide their children and enhance the discussion. We also realize that it is important to some parents to be in the sanctuary for the Rabbi's sermon and for Yizkor on Yom Kippur. We will be sure to notify you when these events are beginning. You are welcome to leave your children during those times and rejoin them later. In the case of preschoolers, please be sure that someone is responsible for picking up your child at the end of the service. Of course, all families are welcome in the sanctuary at any time.

Since Rosh Hashanah comes this year before school starts, I am looking forward to greeting everyone at services. The entire education department joins me in wishing all of you a Shanah Tovah Um'tukah - A very happy, healthy and sweet New Year.

Opening Days:

High Holy Day Family Services:

Rosh Hashana (9/9-10):

The Shofar will be sounded each day between 10:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. This is the most essential element of Rosh Hashanah — hearing the Shofar. If you have children and are planning to bring them to one of our Youth Services, Please come to the Sanctuary First for the Sounding of the Shofar. We are aiming to bring everyone together in one place to share this moment. Please make every effort to be in the Sanctuary no later than 10:00 a.m. Family services will start after the Sounding of the Shofar.

Tashlich (Thursday, September 9 – 5:00 p.m.)

On Rosh Hashanah afternoon we go to a body of water to perform the Tashlich ceremony – to symbolically “cast away” our accumulated sins and transgressions and to purify ourselves as the New Year begins. To enact this “casting away” we toss a few bread crumbs into the water. As usual, we will have two locations for Tashlich:

Simsbury – Simsbury Road and Route 10, near the oldest tree in CT.

West Hartford – The corner of Trout Brook and Asylum.

USY ON WHEELS

by Irene Mackey

We thank Irene for sharing her reflections prior to embarking on her trip this summer. Welcome back, Irene!

What do I expect to gain from USY on Wheels? Not only am I looking forward to seeing our beautiful country, becoming more in touch with my Jewish roots, and getting to know a lot of other Jewish teens, I'm most interested in becoming my own person. My older brother, Evan, was extremely involved in USY. When I was a freshman in high school, my brother was a senior, and on regional board. He was always very friendly and reliable and, I guess, considered "cool" around my region. Because my brother was so involved, I sunk into his shadow, and was known by a lot of people as nothing more than Evan's little sister. I fell head over heels for USY the moment I attended my first convention in the 8th grade. All I ever wanted to do was make my and everyone else's USY experience as amazing as possible.

After my brother graduated and was no longer in USY, I feel I truly blossomed. I showed my chapter and region that I, too, can be a leader. I can be positive when necessary and give others the joy that USY has brought me. I want to show other teens that they, too, can break out of their shells. Also, to some teens, USY may only be a social time to meet new people. They may not realize how important it is that we are spending as much time praying and getting into the songs and prayer to understand why we are Jewish, and what it means to be Jewish; to be loud and proud of our faith.

I wish I had more words to describe how great the USY on Wheels program is going to be for not only me, but for every single other person on my bus. Even though I don't know anyone else on my bus, I can already tell that this is going to be the absolute best summer of my life. When I think about how much this experience will truly change my life, it almost brings tears to my eyes. I cannot thank you enough for giving me the chance to blossom even more than I already have and to love my religion even more, as well.

EMANUEL USY WELCOMES ADVISOR, HARRISON SHAPIRO

Harrison Shapiro and will be the USY Director at Emanuel this year. He is from Stamford, CT and is currently taking classes at Central Connecticut State University. He is majoring in Physical Education because of his love for sports and working with kids.

Harrison was an active member of his synagogue's USY in Stamford and was president for 2 years. Last year he served that synagogue as a USY intern and planned and chaperoned many events. Harrison says, "I am looking forward to working with the Emanuel community and hope to meet everyone." We are looking forward to working with Harrison.

HELP US KEEP TRACK OF OUR COLLEGE STUDENTS! DO YOU HAVE A SON OR DAUGHTER WHO HAS GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL AND IS SOON GOING OFF TO COLLEGE? PLEASE SEND THEIR ADDRESS, NAME OF SCHOOL, AND EMAIL TO CAROLYN@EMANUELSYNAGOGUE.ORG SO THAT WE CAN KEEP IN TOUCH. THANKS!

RABBI HAROLD S. SILVER'S SCULPTURE HAILS THE NEW YEAR!

by Gloria Bein, Exhibit Chairperson

Rosh Hoshanah is here, and with it a most extraordinary exhibit! The works are the product of a new local sculptor, Rabbi Harold S. Silver, Rabbi Emeritus of Congregation Beth Israel.

Rabbi Silver began sculpting just six years ago, at the age of 80. A friend convinced him to take a course at the local Art Center in Sarasota, Florida. Although he was uninterested, he resolved to attend only if they had a course on stone sculpture. He tried it, was "hooked," and a new career was born to the busy retiree.

Within weeks, he created his first piece, "Self Portrait," and now, six years later, he has sculpted 12 pieces, enough for a fantastic exhibition.

In February 2008, Rabbi Silver won First Place for his alabaster sculpture of "Bathsheba" in the sculpture exhibition at the Longboat Key Center for the Arts.

The new artist works in limestone, alabaster, and marble, chiseling away the fifty-pound stone to create his figures. Most of his work is inspired by Biblical themes — Jacob wrestling with the angel, Rachel weeping for her children, Moses and the Ten Commandments.

Silver studies with Ken Cotrona of Meriden, referring to him as his primary teacher and mentor.

Rabbi Silver is also a long-time volunteer narrator for the Talking Books for the Blind, a project of the Connecticut Volunteer Services for the Blind and Handicapped.

Our guest artist commented, "In retirement, you have to move on to the next phase, and not look back. To help you move on, you've got to get into something creative that taps every creative source within you, and that is a totally rejuvenating experience."

The sculptures will remain in the Rose, David, and Ralph Mitnick cases opposite the sanctuary until Chanukah, when they will be replaced by the fabric arts of Ellen Gang of Westport. Inspired by her grandfather, Gang creates family heirlooms from fabrics. She combines fabric arts, Jewish tradition, and personal heritage in her unique design businesses, "Once Upon a Tallis," and "Once Upon a Pillow." Her work will fascinate any viewer — it is so unique!

B'YADEYNU NEWS

by Louise C. Rosenberg

The B'Yadeynu Committee wishes the Emanuel community L'Shanah Tovah!

Please bring your saved non-perishable food items for the annual Kol Nidre Food Drive on Friday September 17. Food items will be donated to the Kosher Food Pantry at Jewish Family Services of Greater Hartford, the West Hartford Food Pantry, and Shiloh Baptist Church. Bags for your food donations and envelopes for donations to Mazon, a national non-profit organization that allocates funds to prevent and alleviate hunger among people of all faiths and backgrounds will be distributed on the first day of Rosh Hashanah at tables at the front and back entrances of the synagogue.

- MAZON ("food" in Hebrew) believes its dual purpose is to provide for those who are hungry today and to address the systemic causes of hunger and poverty, both domestically and globally. Although grants are provided to many organizations serving the Jewish poor, in keeping with the best of Jewish tradition, MAZON believes it is important to respond to all who are in need. This year the Emanuel Synagogue has been selected by Mazon to be the site for the presentation of a certificate to a local Tzedakah organization, End Hunger Connecticut during services on the first day of Rosh Hashanah. End Hunger Connecticut will be the recipients of an $11,000 grant from Mazon to support their anti-hunger advocacy work, including the expansion of childhood nutrition programs WIC and SNAP. WIC (Women, Infants, Children) is a federally funded program that helps pregnant women, new mothers, and children less than five years old to stay healthy and well. SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) is the federally funded food stamp program.

- Please join other Emanuel Synagogue members in leading Friday evening Shabbat services and sharing Shabbat joy with residents at the Hebrew Home beginning in October. Services are from 7-8 p.m. on the third Friday of each month. We start gathering and escorting residents from their rooms to the chapel at 6:40. For more information, please contact Pam Garry at 523-5254 or pgarry@comcast.net. Your participation, children and adults, regardless of your knowledge of Hebrew or the service, will help to make it a warm-hearted and spirited service for everyone.

- Please contact Risa Davidson, risa@manageyourleads.com if you are interested in helping the committee with its many drives and endeavors for the community both locally and internationally such as the Kol Nidre Food Drive and Lillian Harris Turkey Drive, the packaging and mailing of Chanukah gifts to Jewish American soldiers serving overseas and the Israeli Solidarity Committee (ISC).

ISRAEL DEFENSE FORCES SOLDIERS VISIT EMANUEL SYNAGOGUE

On July 26, First Sergeant Eran of the IDF Paratroopers and Sergeant Ilan, a reserve duty medic in the IDF Paratroopers (last names not used for security purposes), paid a visit to the Emanuel Synagogue to tell about their experiences in the Second Lebanon War. Both soldiers were wounded in combat. Dessert and coffee was provided by the Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood. This event was co-sponsored by the Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood and the Westchester/Connecticut Chapter of Friends of the IDF.

SUPPORT GROUP FOR PARENTS OF GAY & LESBIAN CHILDREN

What happens when your child tells you they're gay?

What do you do when you think you're child is gay but they won't talk about it?

Do you feel excited for your child that they are on their way to self discovery? Do you feel concern that they may face discrimination? Do you feel isolated because you don't know anyone else with a gay child? Finding out your child is gay is an unscripted journey from discovery to acceptance to fully embracing the joy in your child's being able to lead an authentic and fulfilled life.

Come join our group to share the "ins and outs" of your experience, give and get support, and navigate the complexities of sharing this journey with family, friends, and the community at large. The group facilitators are Emanuel parents of gay adult children who have been through the process.

This initiative has the blessing and support of Rabbi Small and the Caring Committee. Email your interest to Renee Friedman at sheldon.friedman@comcast.net or Cookie Melito at tonescookie@aol.com. Strict confidentiality is assured.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday Sept. 28 at 7:30 at the Emanuel Synagogue.

GOALS

- Help answer or get answers to questions about gay unions/marriage, equal rights, social attitudes, grandchildren
- Provide support and positive role models to other parents, especially in a Jewish context
- Offer strategies to deal with situations that arise
- Provide a springboard to bounce feelings and thoughts off of to people who totally understand where you are coming from
- To help Emanuel congregants feel comfortable sharing their pride in their children
- Potential to engage in political advocacy, if there is group interest

OUR MOTIVATIONS

- We remember how isolated and difficult our process was, compounded by not knowing who we could talk to and go to for support

- Recognizing that Judaism supports gays and their right to lead an authentic Jewish gay life
- Our belief is that if you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem

FACILITATORS

Cookie Melito: Cookie has a masters degree in counseling with a background in facilitating support groups and group process. Cookie's son David came out as a freshman in college in 1989 and lives with his partner of three years, who is also named David.

Renee Friedman: Renee is a certified CT school teacher with many years of teaching experience, including adult workshop facilitation and student advocacy. Renee's daughter Robyn came out after college graduation and married her partner Alex in 2008.

HOW WILL MEETING GET STARTED

- At first meeting, facilitators will share their experiences with the group
- we will ask participants
 - what their experiences are
 - where they are in the process of acceptance
 - what they hope to get from the group, including future possibilities such as engaging speakers, etc.
- we will develop future meeting agendas based on the needs of the individuals in the group.

CONNECTICUT TOUR DE SHULS EXCEEDED ALL HOPES

On June 27, 2010, like spokes on a wheel, cyclists from the greater Jewish community came together at the hub — Emanuel Synagogue — to start and end their bike rides benefiting the Tikvah Special Needs Program of Camp Ramah New England. 55 bike riders and 25 volunteers joined together for a very memorable inaugural event. This year marked the first CT Tour de Shuls, cycling fundraiser, sponsored by the Connecticut Valley Region of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs, area businesses, Connecticut GI, Stanger & Arnold Attorneys at Law, and synagogue men's clubs from Emanuel Synagogue, Beth El Temple, Beth Sholom B'nai Israel. Nine area temples also participated in providing volunteers and publicity support: Beth David Synagogue, Beth El Temple, Beth Hillel Synagogue, Beth Sholom B'nai Israel, Congregation Beth Ahm, Congregation B'nai Sholom, Congregation Tikvoh Chadoshoh, Emanuel Synagogue and Farmington Valley Jewish Congregation.

News From The SISTERHOOD

SISTERHOOD NEWS

by Debbie Bettan, Co-President

The summer has come to a close and therefore we must get busy for the year ahead. The Sisterhood Board members met at the end of the summer for a Pot Luck Dinner to discuss the upcoming year. We have very exciting programs in the works so please watch for dates and times as they will be announced in the monthly E-Blast thanks to Susan Kurtis. We are so pleased to have most of our Board Members returning for the second year of their term. We are currently looking for someone to fill the position of Torah Fund Chairman.

If you are interested in this position or know of someone who might be interested please contact Melissa or Debbie.

Our year ended with several of our members coming forward to help with the Tour de Shul Bicycle Ride. The Tikvah Program (meaning Hope) helps to raise money for Special Needs children to attend Camp Ramah. We were very fortunate to be involved in such a worthy cause.

Our first program of the year will be a Brunch on Sunday, September 26 to welcome new members to Sisterhood. Membership Chairpersons Lisa Tesser and Dodie Mendal will be contacting all new members who have joined the Emanuel Synagogue in the past year to join us for a Brunch where they can learn what Sisterhood is all about and meet our Board members.

Sisterhood's annual Paid Up Dinner is scheduled for October 12. Please mark your calendars and join us for a fun evening. This is the time to stand up and show your involvement in Sisterhood. We cannot survive without our members and the many wonderful ideas they share.

Melissa and I would like to wish everyone a very Happy and Healthy New Year. Please do not be a stranger to Sisterhood. Come out and see what we can offer you!

— L'Shana Tova

GREENING EMANUEL

by Michael Levine, MD

The first actions we've taken to reduce electricity use are beginning to show results. The House Committee went through our electric bills for fiscal 2003, 2004, 2008 and 2009. What they found was striking. For the first two periods, we used about 315,000 KW each year. For the last two periods, we used about 252,000 KW, a 20% reduction. This means that we are responsible for reducing significantly the CO2 the power company has to create when generating our power. There is also a significant cost savings.

How did we do it? Some savings came because several of you donated to the Green Building fund, enabling us to replace two inefficient refrigerator/freezers. The Minyonaires replaced a third. We've put motion sensor switches in several rooms. We stopped holding meetings on Monday nights, so we can close the building early. An improvement which promises to create an even bigger reduction in energy use is the changing of all our light fixtures and substituting energy efficient bulbs. Some of the most dramatic reduction came in the sanctuary, where we were able to substitute 50-watt efficient bulbs for 500-watt bulbs. I'll bet you cannot detect any reduction in the brightness of the room. That project was just finished in July, so the savings will not be obvious for a while. It's estimated that this will save about $14,000 a year.

We want to continue our energy saving, recycling and waste reduction activities. We'd like you to join us. If you're willing to help, email me at docmikelev@sbcglobal.net or call and leave your name and email address to (860) 233-7168. We expect to have our next planning meeting in September.
