FROM THE RABBI

ELUL NOTES

*Daily blast of ancient horn
Hope and repair newly born*

*“Time for renewal, Make repairs!”
Teshuvah’s trumpet fills the air
Keen vibrations enter hearts
Work in progress, brand new starts
“Look inside, look around!”
“Plant your feet upon the ground”
“Stand free and present
Do not flee
Embrace responsibility
Climb the mountain, walk the vale
Ascend the narrow winding trail,”
Keen, staccato shofar blast
Hails the future from the past
Eternal One, Source of All
Guide us with the Shofar’s call.*

— Rabbi David J. Small

FROM OUR NEW ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR

by Josh Cohen

One of my favorite memories growing up was watching my father and grandfather in the synagogue where I grew up. They always worked behind the scenes — fixing things that were broken, climbing a ladder to change and clean the curtains in the Ark, rushing to the synagogue to help make a minyan when the phone rang. As a Hebrew School student, my friends and I would sneak out of class and go to the kitchen on Sunday mornings where my father and grandfather were cooking eggs for the Men’s Club breakfast. They would give us a taste and tell us to go back to class.

Following in their footsteps, it was always important to me to have an active role in synagogue life. I am grateful for the opportunity to be serving The Emanuel Synagogue as the Engagement Coordinator. I grew up in West Hartford and have worked exclusively in the Jewish community for almost 20 years.

During that time, like you, I have seen many changes in our community, from demographics to priorities. Things change and so do people. One thing that has remained a constant is The Emanuel Synagogue, a place where people have come together for many years.

These last few weeks, I have spoken with many people and have asked the question, why Emanuel? There are so many stories and so many reasons why we love our synagogue. One of my favorite models of engagement starts with the phrase, “People join people, not organizations.” After speaking with congregants and board members I know this is true for The Emanuel.

We have a friendly, welcoming and inclusive community. One of my goals is to make sure our community, our members, our clergy, are the worst kept secret in town. I’m excited to work with you as we reach out and share the Emanuel story. We’ll do this together by taking some risks, being innovative and also being true to who we are.

I am currently on a listening tour throughout the congregation and community. If you’d like to connect, I urge you to please reach out and let me know if you have ideas, stories or want to brainstorm. I may be reached at josh@emanuelsynagogue.org.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thank you for your support. Where do I begin? It has been a year since you elected me the President of the Board of Trustees. How do I sum up the year behind and envision the one ahead? What stands out above all? What makes a synagogue? From where I sit, I know, more than ever, a synagogue is not a building or a collection of ritual objects though those play roles. What defines us are not tangible things but a collection of the intangible, the spirit each of you bring. Those who come to pray, to celebrate, to mourn, to study, to teach and to serve; you are the Emanuel. It is to you that we and I owe thanks.

Who makes a synagogue? We have our clergy — Rabbi David Small, Hazzan Moshe Pinchover, Rabbi Emeritus Philip Lazowski and Cantor Emeritus Sandy Cohn. They conduct services, guide us with their wisdom and comfort us when we suffer. They stand at the bima to provide a daily structure to our ritual practices. To them, please join me in thanks for all they do.

There are our teachers and religious school director, Barbara Fink. They instruct and care for our children. They answer the big questions that emerge from the young and inquisitive. They instill a love for learning Torah. They too guide our congregation. Join me in thanking them for they are the shepherds of our flock.

We also enjoy a dedicated staff of committed professionals. From our new Executive Director to our Head Superintendent to all of those who maintain the business operations and facilities of the Emanuel Synagogue, a thanks is due from you and me.

To those who serve as volunteers; the Trustees, the Committee Chairs, the program leaders, the Presidents of Brotherhood and Sisterhood and the Minyonaires, we are in your debt. Relying as we do on volunteers offers us more than we could ever afford. For that and more we offer thanks.

To our members, you above all are the reason we exist. Without your commitment and resolve there is no Emanuel Synagogue. Thank you for your membership, your generous contributions and your consistent support.

What lies ahead in the year to come? We are developing our online offerings and studying the means to gather anew. With many challenges ahead, we will focus, not only on the day to day but the long term vision of a thriving Emanuel Synagogue. As times change, we too must adapt. This will be a year to define our vision, to explore new vehicles for engagement and to make sure our membership provides value and meaning. I hope you will join me in this task.

Thank you to each and every one of you. Todah Rabbah.

— Mel Simon

“WE ARE OPEN FOR BUSINESS”

The Emanuel Synagogue held its 101st annual meeting in June — by Zoom — the first-ever virtual annual meeting. Close to 150 Zoomers tuned in to hear President Mel Simon proclaim though the synagogue building has been closed for many months due to the coronavirus, “We are open for business!”

Rabbi David Small led an opening prayer and delivered a D’var Torah. Outgoing officers and trustees of the Board of Directors were thanked for their service and a new slate was inducted. Kobi Benita was introduced as the new executive director, and Josh Cohen was welcomed as the new engagement coordinator. Mel Simon also thanked the clergy and staff for their dedication this past year.

Barbara Fink, director of youth and family learning, and her Religious School educators and staff were praised for bringing Religious School into members’ homes during the trying times of the pandemic.

Emily Lebovitz-Miller thanked Hazzan Sanford Cohn for his 21 years of service to the Emanuel.

Past President Alan Parker spoke personally about how, despite the need for social distancing for safety, The Emanuel has provided comfort to the mourners with Zoom funerals and shiva minyans. “We are not only a welcoming congregation,” he said, “the Emanuel will be there for you.”

YIZKOR BOOK

Dear Emanuel Family:

It is the time of year when we are planning for the upcoming High Holy Days —Yamim Noraim. While many things are uncertain as we look ahead, one thing we can count on is the publication of the Annual Yizkor Book. This book will contain the names of Emanuel and Beth Hillel members who have been dedicated in perpetuity, and the names that you add each year. Please see the form on page 7 to make dedications.

This coming year we will, sadly, have many more names to remember. Please consider making a dedication for your loved ones of blessed memory.

Stay well,
Rabbi David J. Small

SUMMER ZIPLOW

Eric Maurer led a series of summer sessions for the Natalie Ziplow Study Group via Zoom. The group explored ethical dilemmas from the perspective of Jewish law. There was lively debate about the Rabbinic writings and how they might apply to present day situations and today's electronic age.

SHALOM, HAZZAN COHN

Close to 150 people paid tribute to outgoing Hazzan Sandy Cohn and family in a car parade and choir performance, in front of the cantor's West Hartford home on June 28. The Emanuel choir — masked and appropriately distanced — entertained with some of the cantor's favorites. Posters with good wishes were presented to the cantor, who told members he will remain in town and will continue to tutor Emanuel's B'nai Mitzvah students together with Hazzan Moshe Pinchover.

EMANUEL MINYONAIRES ASBC MARKS 40TH ANNIVERSARY

One spring day in 1980, Emanuel Synagogue's then Ritual Director Harold Mondshein (of blessed memory) invited those attending morning minyan to join together for breakfast after services. Thus was born the Emanuel Minyonaires ASBC (After Service Breakfast Club).

Forty years later, the ASBC is still going strong (except during the current pandemic). The Minyonaires are a community of caring, of participatory prayer, of learning and of social justice. All are welcome — members and non-members alike. Prior to a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, the celebrant attends minyan for his or her first aliyah and is presented with a chanukiyah as a gift from the Minyonaires.

During the years, volunteers too numerous to mention have helped with weekday and Sunday breakfast duties — including chefs Hy Siegel and Leon Beinstein and most recently, Dr. Jay Smith.

The Minyonaires are grateful to Gladys Mondshein, who carries on Harold's devotion to the Minyonaires in countless ways.

Yasher Koach to all! Happy 40th Anniversary!

News From The SISTERHOOD

by Fern Cohen, President

At this writing, it is July 2020 — the end of my first year as Sisterhood President. We have had a year with many challenges. The first one was Sisterhood Shabbat via Zoom. If you are like me, Zoom was a new vocabulary word. Never did I think Sisterhood would not be meeting in person. Zoom has definitely changed our lives. Our Board meetings have been via Zoom, and our Dinner with the Rabbi as well as Torah Fund Dinner have been rescheduled.

Women's League of Conservative Judaism was scheduled to have their conference in Chicago in July but was changed to a virtual one-day event on July 12. Our own Debbie Bettan was installed as a National VP of Tikkun Olam. We are proud of her and all the things she has done for our Sisterhood as well as Women's League. Women's League presented our Sisterhood "The Jewels in the Crown Award." This award honors the achievement in offering programs that nurture and sustain Jewish life and vitality in local communities. It is awarded once every three years. As President, I'm honored to accept this award on behalf of our Sisterhood.

I hope everyone is having an enjoyable summer. I look forward to another successful year. Stay safe, stay healthy!

Save the Dates

JUDAIC SHOP CAN ASSIST WITH SPECIAL ORDERS

We hope everyone is staying healthy and safe. When the synagogue is able to reopen, we will also reopen the Judaic Shop. Until that time, we are available to assist you with special orders and requests. If you see an item online and we have an account with that particular vendor we will be able to place the order and have it shipped to you.

Please call us, Lisa (860-805-0539) or Debbie (860-798-9355).

We look forward to the time we can reopen and assist you in person. Keep well!

News From The

BROTHERHOOD

by Jeff Adler, President

Hope all are continuing to do well as we move forward from total lockdown and quarantine to some greater interactions. Brotherhood is a service organization. I am proud we recently worked with the Rabbi to provide a congregant with a working computer that now allows that individual to participate in The Emanuel's Zoom services. We will be there in the future if the need arises again.

The Brotherhood will be mailing our annual dues statement and calendar to all Brothers during August. The calendar was developed under the assumption we would be having events in the synagogue by the fall. As that now seems less likely, we are working on alternative programs that can be held remotely and at physically safe distances. We will announce these as soon as they are scheduled.

In the meantime, have a great rest of the summer, and we look forward to seeing you at an online synagogue event now or in the future.
