

Adult Education News for October 2017

Please join us for our upcoming programs and invite a friend!

October Lunch & Learn with Rabbi Lazowski!

Classes will discuss:
The Book of Deuteronomy

Rabbi Lazowski Lunch & Learn

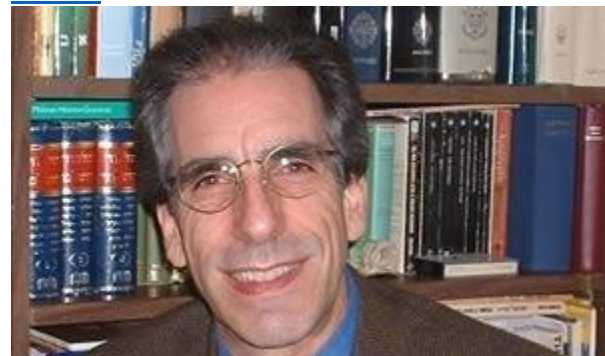

- Starts October 17
- Tuesdays, for 6 weeks
- 12 noon - 1:15 p.m
- FREE- RSVP required

Includes Kosher Lunch!

at: LAZ Parking Office Building
15 Lewis Street, Hartford (free parking)

Deuteronomy includes Moses' speeches and prophecies, illustrating his timeless vision and essential role as "Moshe Rabeinu," (Moses our Teacher) as he is called by the Sages. *RSVP is required to: Kevin at LAZ Parking: 860-522-7641 ext. 7714 or kdowlinglogue@lazparking.com

Separating out the Facts: Wednesday, October 25, at 7:15pm, Professor Stuart Miller from The UCONN Judaic Road show will present a talk on "Separating out the Facts: The Origins of Christianity and the History of Judaism". What both Jews and Christians need to know about the beginnings of Christianity and its roots in Judaism. The reasons for the eventual "parting of the ways" are explored in-depth". Free and Open to the Public, at The Emanuel Synagogue, 160 Mohegan

Dr, West Hartford, CT 06117, USA. For more information contact

CONTACT Adult Education Chair Gail Adler <mailto:gailadler@aol.com>, 860-236-1275.