

Selichot with The Afro-Semitic Experience

Saturday, September 16, 2017 at 10pm

Please join us for this very special and unique service to prepare for the High Holy Days, led by Hazzan Sanford Cohn and other area cantors. Open to the entire community.

The service will be preceded by Refreshments at 8:30pm
Lecture at 9:00pm
by Professor Benjamin Sommer of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

The Afro-Semitic Experience combines an eclectic array of styles, sophisticated musicianship and good songwriting. It began nearly 20 years ago as a collaboration of Jewish-American bassist David Chevan and African-American pianist Warren Byrd, a native of Hartford. They perform and record jazz interpretations of traditional spirituals and Jewish songs and liturgy.
