

SUNDAY APRIL 22, 2018 9:00AM
EMANUEL BROTHERHOOD
BREAKFAST/SPEAKER PROGRAM
FEATURING
BEN COOPER
WORLD WAR II COMBAT MEDIC

Come hear the story of Ben Cooper, a WWII Combat Medic with the 45th Infantry Division and liberator of Dachau concentration camp. Ben Cooper, a lifelong resident of West Hartford and Hall High graduate was drafted into the US Army in 1942. Ben has traveled around the state speaking to school and civic groups about his first-hand account during WWII living his lifelong motto to stand up against bullying and hatred with messages about perseverance and treating everyone with kindness.

Everyone is invited to attend this free event.

Buffet Breakfast served at 9AM.

No need to RSVP

For more information contact malleyks@gmail.com