

Engaging the Angels of our Better Nature: Rabbinic Wisdom for Troubled Times

- Thursday May 17
- 7:30 pm – Activity Room
- The Emanuel Synagogue

For Chaverim members and guests*

The Emanuel Synagogue's Rabbi Small will discuss how we govern our most human instincts through the telling of the imaginative Midrash on Moses, God and the Angels. He will demonstrate how ancient lore combines with modern neuroscience for many social interactions.

Rabbi Small will offer practical wisdom in addressing modern civil discourse, and highlight how to best treat each other with kindness and honor in order to successfully navigate today's complicated world.

*Chaverim (meaning 'Friends') is a social group for the LGBT Jewish community of Greater Hartford that embraces all ages and all Jewish denominations, both singles and partnered. Interfaith couples are welcome, and synagogue affiliation is not required

Dessert will be provided – The event is FREE, but reservations are required.

All are invited to join us for 7pm Minyan in the Chapel, prior to the event

To reserve your spot and for more details about Chaverim, CONTACT: Monique Faison Ross: schlep84@gmail.com, or Mark Slitt: mark.slitt@yahoo.com