Vol. 97, No. 2

November/December 2021 • Cheshvan/Kislev/Teves 5782

Dear Emanuel Family,

Please accept our heartfelt thanks for the amazing “L’Chayim” Gala Shabbaton Weekend held Oct. 1-3. The careful planning and hard work of many people created an unforgettable experience! The spirit of collaboration and community made it even more joyful. We feel blessed to be part of such a warm, loving Emanuel Family.

Thank you for the State Proclamation and beautiful mezuzah, which will remind us of this wonderful weekend for many years to come. It was a special privilege to share this honor with Rabbi and Ruth Lazowski. Kol Hakavod to all the wonderful clergy, staff, educators, support staff and the officers, Trustees, leaders and members of our Emanuel Family!

Yisbar Koach to the Gala Committee and Todah Rabbah to our generous donors! We appreciate the strong partnership with Voices of Hope and Voices staff and board. Our shared efforts have raised important resources for The Emanuel and Voices of Hope. In the season of Light may we shine forth light in our homes, our community and the world. Chag Orim Sameach — Happy Chanukah!

With love and gratitude,

Rabbi David J. Small and Debbie Chameides

Emanuel Synagogue presents a staged reading of Ben Engel's new play

HAVDALAH

SUNDAY NOV. 7, 2021 7 PM

The Emanuel Players will return to the stage Sunday, Nov. 7, 7:00 p.m., with a staged reading of Ben Engel's latest play, Havdalah, directed by Adrian A. Durlister. The play looks at the pressures, conflicts, and opportunities Jews faced when they encountered modern life in 19th century Berlin. Ben tells the story by focusing on the large and prominent Mendelssohn family. The performance will be followed by a reception sponsored by Fierston Financial Group.

Due to Covid-required protocols and attendance limits, the staged reading will be performed before an in-person audience of up to 150, and also over Zoom. Accordingly, general admission will be free both in-person and on Zoom. Your confirmation email will contain a link to a secure portal in which you should upload your vaccination card unless you have previously done so for past Emanuel events. This must be done for EACH registrant for in-person attendance.

The synagogue would greatly appreciate your voluntary donations and sponsorships! Visit our website at www.emanuelsynagogue.org to register for the play and to make a voluntary donation. When registering, please indicate if you will be attending in-person or by Zoom. The Zoom link will be provided before November 7. For further information, contact chair Marsha Wolfberg, marshawolfberg@yahoo.com.

PREPLANNING A FUNERAL

BLUMENSTEIN FUNERALS OFFERS A PREPLANNING SERVICE THAT CAN BE THE ANSWER TO MANY QUESTIONS SURROUNDING FUNERAL SERVICES

Our own mortality is never an easy subject to talk about, let alone accept as a reality, but it is a fact that we all have to face. If you have children, a husband, or a wife, it is very important that you take the responsibility to put things in order in case of a premature death, or a death at a ripe old age from natural causes. There will always be arrangements that need to be made, people to alert, and legal matters to deal with. Preplanning your funeral and prepaying for it have many benefits for both you and your survivors

MONEY MATTERS

Planning ahead lets you make arrangements to cover the funeral costs. Even if you are leaving sufficient money, will your survivors be able to access it?

WHEN YOU PREPLAN AND PREPAY FOR A FUNERAL

YOU LOCK IN THE CURRENT FUNERAL PRICES therefore you avoid rising costs in the future.

According to the National Funeral Directors Association between 2004 and 2019, the median cost of a funeral rose 27% (from $5583 to $7640)

AVOID PROBATE COURT ISSUES

All wills in Connecticut go through probate court, and that means your money or your estate that could be used to pay for your funeral will be in limbo for weeks or possibly even months.

If you don't have a will, estate distribution could take even longer.

When you prepay for your funeral, your family will not have to struggle to come up with the money to pay for services. Instead they can focus on prayer and mourning.

Having your funeral paid for in advance limits your estate, and therefore your estate taxes your beneficiaries will have to pay.

YOUR PREFERENCES WILL BE HONORED

When you preplan your funeral your choices are made clear to those you leave behind.

You can plan it down to the detail if you wish, even down to the guest list.

Ensure you have a ceremony that honors the traditions of our ancestors.

You will decide what will be done with your body, including where and when you will be buried.

Do you want to be buried in Israel? Advanced planning is key to making that possible.

RELIEVE YOUR FAMILY OF THE BURDEN

Your family and community will be mourning the loss of you, and will be so relieved to know that you thought of them by taking care of all the details for them.

The financial burden of a funeral is also a final gift you can give to your family.

HAVE YOUR PAPERWORK IN ORDER

Having your funeral paid for in advance limits your estate, and therefore the estate taxes your beneficiaries will have to pay.

The best thing to do is to have a local legal professional have your will, a copy of funeral preplanning and other important paperwork so that matters can be handled quickly and efficiently.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

As we look forward to the joyous holidays of Thanksgiving and Chanukah, it is appropriate to take a moment and look back at the bounty that has been bestowed upon us in the last two months. As I write, I look forward to the Tribute celebrating our Rabbis and their wives and honoring Voices of Hope, an organization that provides Holocaust education to our community. By the time you read this, we will have experienced an amazing Shabbaton. In this message, I recognize our Rabbis for two specific and amazing moments during this year's Yamim Noraim. Both Rabbis gave us something very beautiful this year.

On Yom Kippur morning, Rabbi Small's Yizkor sermon was both timely and relevant to congregants from preteens to seniors. I tip my kippah to you, Rabbi Small. Sharing his personal family story inspired us to feel comfort and peace in reconciling some of our own private concerns. He encouraged us to remember special people who may have given us the courage and confidence to take on challenges; he encouraged us to provide the same support to our young congregants. His message, "We are all beautiful and valuable exactly as we are," struck a chord throughout the Sanctuary, Koret and Silverman and on Livestream. The introspective look at mental challenges particularly among our young and vulnerable populations speaks to all of us. Many congregants remarked this was one of the best sermons they had ever heard. The notion that we all are on the spectrum in one way or another resonates with me as it may with you. Todah Rabbah and Yasher Koach to our Rabbi Small for helping us to recall our past with fond memories and think about how to make us more loving and accepting.

The second incredible moment and blessing came from Rabbi Lazowski on Yom Kippur afternoon. I have listened to him chant Jonah (Prophetic Portion) on many occasions. With a break in my responsibilities, I reveled in my third row seat directly in front of the shulchan. What I observed was nothing short of miraculous. We are all familiar with Rabbi Lazowski's story of survival. However, watching Rabbi Lazowski, age 91, standing strong after 24 hours of fasting, chanting the great tale of the Penitent and the Whale, was remarkable. I closed my eyes and heard a man half his age tell the story with great vigor. I felt as if I was in the belly of the great fish.

For both of these moments of grace and beauty, saying Yishar

Kochachem seems inadequate. These moments add to the many reasons we pay tribute to our great Rabbis. I, for one, am grateful to be president of a synagogue with two such exceptional and inspiring leaders.

I wish everyone a full Thanksgiving Table and a joyous Chanukah season.

— Ken Simon

L'CHAYIM — TO LIFE! EMANUEL'S RABBIS AND SPOUSES HONORED

The Emanuel Synagogue and Voices of Hope sponsored a special Shabbaton tribute weekend Oct. 1-3 in honor of Rabbi Philip & Ruth Lazowski and Rabbi David Small & Debbie Chameides. In addition, Rebecca Frankel, author of Into the Forest, spoke about her new book, which is Ruth Lazowski's family story of escape. Holocaust survivors were recognized during Shabbat services. Alan Lazowski and Andrew Pinkes served as honorary co-chairs of the event, which was chaired by Gail Adler. Delicious desserts were provided by Royal Catering & Events, a division of The Crown Market.

LIFE & LEGACY: PLANTING SEEDS IN A GARDEN YOU NEVER GET TO SEE

By Elysa L. Graber-Lipperman

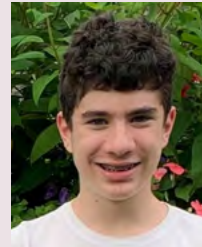

On a beautiful fall day while Peter and I were driving in Massachusetts, I spotted an incredible sight on the side of a busy road — a young tree growing out of a large tree stump. Peter kindly pulled over to enable me to snap the picture accompanying this writing. My cellphone could not do justice to the gift of nature's splendor that I was able to witness.

As I ruminated on this remarkable image of new, blossoming, and continuing growth emerging from an old, sturdy, and solid base, my thoughts turned to The Emanuel and its participation in the LIFE & LEGACY program (to learn more about The Emanuel's participation in the Life & Legacy program, please see page 9 of the September/October 2021 edition of Everything Emanuel.) Our vibrant Emanuel community provides new, relevant, and meaningful ways to connect to each other and to G-d as we explore our own personal Jewish journeys, all the while embracing and building on our rich heritage. We are able to thrive as the beneficiaries of the heritage and history built and nurtured by our forward-looking founders and the investments in our future made by the congregants who came before us through the present and legacy gifts they bestowed upon our congregation.

My mind also turned to the lyrics sung in "The World Was Wide Enough" from the musical Hamilton. While contemplating his legacy, Hamilton sings, "Legacy, what is a legacy? It's planting seeds in a garden you never get to see." The seeds we plant during our lifetimes may be our ideas, our writings, the ways in which we inspire others, the physical manifestations of our labor, or the planned legacy gifts we make.

I wanted to take this opportunity to share a little bit about the seeds I am in the process of planting. As part of the LIFE & LEGACY program, I have signed a letter of intent to fund a legacy gift to support the following: the capital needs of The Emanuel Synagogue; the safety and security of the Greater Hartford Jewish community; and leadership training for the Greater Hartford Jewish community on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. I am grateful for the opportunity to take a role in providing funding in the future to The Emanuel and to the larger community.

Please reach out to me or one of The Emanuel's other LIFE & LEGACY campaign team members — Rabbi David Small, Executive Director Kobi Benita, Immediate Past President Melvin Simon, Deborah Zuckerman, Alan Rosenberg, Dr. Donald Miller, or Hollis Dorman — to learn more about the LIFE & LEGACY program and The Emanuel's Menorah Legacy Society. Thank you for your continued generosity and support.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

by Barbara Fink

It is the time of year I reflect on new beginnings. We have just finished celebrating the Tishrei holidays and Religious School has begun. Seeing kids learning inside and outside of our building is always inspiring.

The Torah commands parents to “teach your children” V’shinantam L’vanecha. In the last year and a half, we have learned a lot about how we should teach our children. Religious School last year was hybrid- meeting on Sundays in person and on Zoom during the week. This year, we are combining the best of both worlds and meeting in person during the week as well as on Sundays. However, we are adding individualized tutoring on Zoom for each child. We have found this one on one work is what is best for our kids. It allows our teachers to give each child exactly what they need when it comes to Hebrew reading instruction and gives our kids greater confidence when in school and in shul. The use of Zoom allows our student rabbi to continue her work with our 5th and 6th graders to teach them Torah and Haftarah trope so they become proficient

UPCOMING PROGRAMS:

Nov. 6: Family Services and Tot Shabbat

Nov. 21: 7th grade family program

Nov. 21: Bagels Blocks and Beyond for Preschool families

Dec. 5: Bagels Blocks and Beyond for Preschool families

Dec. 19: 3rd grade family program

Shabbat Babayit: Every Friday at 5:30 p.m. on Zoom readers. We will continue to have Hebrew Through Movement, a 10-minute “class” taught in Hebrew on Wednesdays.

We are continuing with our family education outdoors with amazing programs such as Tashlich and Shake-it-Up in the sukkah. Our family services will move off zoom and be in person this year. And as long as the weather cooperates, we will be outdoors as much as possible.

This year is going to be great, and I want to thank all the parents for partnering with us to help teach your children.

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

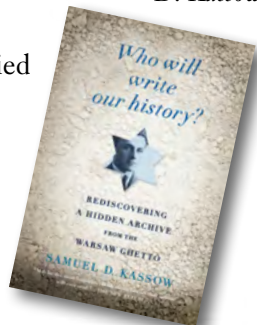

In September, Emanuel Adult Education co-sponsored an informative and dynamic talk by author Sara Aharon about the Jews of Afghanistan. October programs included a talk by Yale Professor David Sorkin about the Jews of Prussia in the first half of the 19th century. Prof Sorkin provided background about life in Eastern Europe in preparation for the Nov. 7 staged reading of Ben Engel's play, Havdalab. Tour guide Mike Hollander also led us on a virtual tour of Warsaw, Krakow and Auschwitz-Birkenau, emphasizing the history of Jewish life in Poland.

COMING UP:

- Thursday, Nov. 4, 8:30 p.m.: "Who Will Write Our History?" with Professor Samuel D. Kassow. Trinity Prof. Kassow will tell the tragic story of the Polish historian Emanuel Ringelblum and his clandestine scholarly organization, the Oyneg Shabes which recorded the experiences of the Warsaw Ghetto's inhabitants from 1940-1943. Shortly before the Warsaw Ghetto was emptied and razed in 1943, the Oyneg Shabes buried thousands of documents from this massive archive in milk cans and tin boxes, ensuring the voice and culture of a doomed people would outlast the efforts of their enemies to silence them.

Professor Samuel
D. Kassow

- Sunday, Nov. 14, 8 p.m.: A Virtual Tour of Russia: St. Petersburg & Moscow — The Pale and Beyond: Many Ashkenazi Jews say their parents/grandparents/great grandparents came from "Russia"; however, most likely they did not! Jews, mostly, were not allowed to live in what is today the Russian Federation (including St. Petersburg and Moscow) until 1860. From that period until the Russian Revolution in 1917, this area was an anvil of Jewish creativity. In addition, major events here — including the assassination of Czar Alexander II in 1881, the Russian Revolution, the Great Patriotic War (WWII), the Cold War, and Glasnost - had tremendous impact on the Jewish population in this part of the world. They also had a profound impact on North American Jewry. This journey will visit these cities and examine how these events have and continue to impact Jewish identity in these places, as well as in North America and Israel.

- Saturday, Nov. 20, 8 p.m.: "True Colors": Jewish Women's Theatre's (JWT) celebrates today's multicultural Jews in its new salon show True Colors. In True Colors, audiences will meet unforgettable characters who tell personal stories about how they see themselves and how others see them. Ironically, while many American Jews can reach consensus about a commitment to social justice for others, they do not always embrace diversity in their own community. This enlightening show will explore the impact of living as Jews of Color when inclusion and equity are not always practiced in the Jewish community.

- The Natalie Ziplow Study Group with Rabbi Small will continue to meet on Zoom Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m. All are welcome!

Please check your weekly Emanuel Updates, the Emanuel Synagogue website, and the Emanuel Mishpacha Facebook page for information on upcoming programs and registration links. We remind you pre-registration is required for Emanuel Adult Education programs on Zoom in order to ensure a secure and meaningful experience. Participants must register on the link provided in the weekly Updates or on the Emanuel website. The actual Zoom link will be sent out to registered participants by email. It is helpful if your Zoom name and your registration name are the same or very similar so we can easily verify your identity. When possible, recordings of programs will be available on the Emanuel website, by scrolling down to the bottom of the page and clicking on the red YouTube button.

News From The BROTHERHOOD

by Jeff Adler, President

It is hard to believe this is the last bulletin of the year. It was an active September and October for the Brotherhood and we have a number of events scheduled in November and December. We hope you will join us. We will have our first Sunday breakfast on Nov. 14, with Dan Fine providing us a program on the Life and Music of Irving Berlin, with Dan on the piano. We will have dinner and discussion with Rabbi Small on Wednesday, Dec. 8.

If you have any questions about Brotherhood, are interested in joining or have suggestions for a program, please contact me at jeffreya.adler@gmail.com.

JUDAIC SHOP READY FOR CHANUKAH!

Hoping everyone had a good fall season and will have an enjoyable family Thanksgiving. Sunday evening after Thanksgiving is the first night of Chanukah.

The Judaic shop is ready for the Chanukah season. We placed an order with the designer Gary Rosenthal before he closed his doors and have beautiful Chanukah items. We carry menorahs, dreidels, candles and trays.

Call us to make an appointment: Lisa, 860-805-0539 or Debbie, 860-798-9355. We look forward to meeting with you.

Happy Chanukah!

— Lisa and Debbie
