THE ART OF PURIM

THE ART OF PURIM celebrates the foiled attempt to kill all the Jews of the Persian Empire in the 5th c., BCE. The Book of Esther relates this story and is read today from a scroll called The Megillah. It is the only book of the Hebrew Bible that does not include the name of God. THE ART OF PURIM shows wall paintings from the 3rd c., CE and includes illuminated manuscripts, groggers, and contemporary artworks from around the world.
