Reflections

Any love that depends on something, else [when] the thing is gone, the love is gone. But [unconditional love] that does not depend on something else will never come to an end.

– Mishna, Abot 5:16

Things that are over do not end. They come inside us, and seek sanctuary...and there they live on, in the consciousness of individuals and communities.

– Leon Wieseltier

From the illumination of our souls, flashes of light will shine on the world. These meanings will all together fill the world with abundance.

– Abraham Isaac Kook

I am beginning to think that in this tradition it is almost impossible not to find forgiveness. There is nobody for whom there is not a way home.

– Leon Wieseltier

I will change their grief to gladness. I will console and cheer them after their sorrow.

– Jeremiah 31:13

Yizkor: Making the Connection

Yizkor is a request, directed to the Holy One, to remember our loved ones. In the act of asking G-d to remember, we ourselves perform a powerful act of loving memory. Why ask the One who remembers everything to remember? Does G-d need a reminder? Why not simply say, “I remember”? By using this form, we emphasize that the act of loving memory is on behalf of our beloved. While it gives us comfort, we say their names and ask G-d to remember them for their benefit and for their honor.

Yizkor is our way of staying connected with our departed. Jewish culture values improvisation and constant invention; we also find great meaning performing the same action — with love and purpose — again and again. Yizkor is one of these important repeated actions. Our loved ones’ names are on our lips — Yom Tov after Yom Tov, year after year — as long as we have the breath within us to utter their names. When we keep faith with them in this way, we accord our dead an earthly immortality. They live on in our actions as well as in our hearts and minds.

One important way to honor the memory of our loved ones is to give a contribution in their memory. This gift is a true act of loving-kindness; we keep alive our loved one’s name through performance of this sacred and important task. This is what our Sages meant when they taught, Tzedakah tatzil mimavet, “Charitable giving saves from death.” Giving in memory of our dead saves them from oblivion by affirming their memory among the living through good deeds.

These generous acts to and for our dead elevate us and refine our hearts. When we honor and love the people who touched our lives, we honor and love the Creator of us all.

The Emanuel Synagogue lovingly remembers the departed of Beth Hillel Synagogue. As one congregation, we continue to honor all our departed and to preserve their legacy in loving memory. The names formerly recorded in the Beth Hillel Memorial Book are fully integrated in this Book of Remembrance. May their memories endure as a blessing.

The Yizkor book is a time-honored Jewish practice. We hope that this book brings comfort to those who mourn and honor our departed, whom we remember with love.

Love is Strong as Death

Shir HaShirim, Song of Songs declares: Love is strong as death as mighty as Sheol.

Its darts are darts of fire, a blazing flame.

Vast floods cannot quench love, nor rivers drown it (8:6-7).
Our Yizkor prayers, our loving memory practiced over years attests to the undying devotion we feel and express to our loved ones.

May this moment and their memories and above all our love for them inspire us to live better lives.

בְּעַת אִישׁוֹן וְאָעִידָהּ:

בְּיָדוֹ אֶפְקִיד רוּחִי

יְיָ לִי וְלֹא אֵירָא:

וְעַם רוּחִי גְּוַנְתִּי

My soul I give to you
My spirit in your care
Draw me near
I shall not fear
Hold me in your hand
Draw me near
I shall not fear
Safely in your hand

– Translation by Craig Taubman

יהוה מָה־אָדָם נִתְדַעֵהוּ בֶן־אָנוּשׁ נִתְחַשְׁבֶּהוּ:
Eternal One, what are mortals that you regard them?
What is humanity that you take account of it?

אָדָם לְהֶבֶל דָּמָה יָמָיו כְּצֶל עוֹבֵר:
We are like a breath,
Our days like a fleeting shadow.

Psalm 144

בְּבֹקֶר יִצְיֵץ וְחִלְף לְעֶרֶב יִמּוּלֵל וַיִּבֶשׁ:
We are like new-grown grass;
in the morning it flourishes and sprouts afresh,
in the evening it is cut down and withers.

לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ בֶן הַיּוֹדֵעַ וְנָבֵא לְבַב חֲכָמָה:
So teach us to number our days that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Psalm 90

שָׁמַר־תָּם וּרְאֵה יִשְׂרָאֵל בֶּן־אַחֲרִית לְאִישׁ שְׁלוֹם:
Mark the innocent one, and behold the upright;
for there is a future for the peaceful one.

Psalm 37

אֲנִי־אֱלֹהִים יִפְדֶּה נַפְשִׁי מִיַּד שְׂאוֹל כִּי יִקְחֵנִי סָלָה:
God will redeem my soul from the grasp of the grave;
God will receive me.

Psalm 49

כָּלָה שְׂאֵרֵי וּלְבָבִי צוּר־לְבָבִי וְחִלְקֵי אֱלֹהִים לְעוֹלָם:
The flesh and the heart fail,
but God is my strength of heart and my portion for ever.

Psalm 73

וַיָּשָׁב הָעֶפְרָר עַל־הָאָרֶץ כְּשֶׁהָיָה
וְהָרוּחַ תָּשׁוּב אֶל־הָאֱלֹהִים אֲשֶׁר נָתַנָּה:
The dust returns to the earth as it was,
but the spirit returns unto God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12

We remember them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Sylvan Kamens and Jack Riemer

Eternal God, in whose eyes a thousand years are but as yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every soul is precious.

O Lord, from whom we come and to whom we return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate this hour to the memory of our departed.

The Presence of Your Absence

Reaching through the void
Feeling the absence
Of your presence
Your present absence
As immediate, real as the Hole in my soul.

*A garland of memory
Around my head,
I walk the beach
Hand in hand
With glimmers of you.*

The whispering wind
Carries words beyond hearing
Can you hear me?
Can you feel me?

*I grip
The pages of my book
Send a message
Western Union
Facebook
Shulmail
I send
I post
I cry:*

Are you there?

*I feel you Turn to tell you
But awake again
To your present absence.*

*I am here
I still love you
Your name on my lips
Your face before my eyes
Your smile
Your words
Your glance
Your touch.*

Your name in stone
We wrote it Set it
Unveiled it.

*I visit
And clean the grass clippings
Bird leavings from the polished surface*

And place on top
A piece of my heart
Living flesh now turned to stone

*A witness
To my love
My remembering of you.*

I stand with others
A field of waving sunflowers
Dripping salt dew
In the morning sun
That somehow penetrates these concrete walls

*Reaching for your presence
Feeling the presence of your absence.*

A Yizkor Reflection: What Does It All Mean?

On the High Holy Days we confront the temporary, contingent quality of life. We ask ourselves, "What will remain after me when I die?" "What does it all mean" In the Amidah of Yom Kippur, we ask:

"Mah anachnu? Mah Chayeyinu? Mah Chasdeinu? Mah Tzidkeinu? Mah Yisheinu? Mah Kocheinu? Mah Gvuroteinu?"

What are we? What is our life? What is our goodness? What is our righteousness? What is our achievement? What is our power? What are our victories?

The litany of "Mah....Mah....Mah...." hits us like a series of body blows. Unrelenting, the words bludgeon out of us any residual pridefulness that might stand in the way of sincere repentance.

Illusions of glory ring hollow, pretense and status shatter before us:

Heroes count as nothing in your presence, famous people are as if they never existed, the wise seem ignorant, and clever ones as if they lack reason....all is vanity.

How depressing! If so, why don't we just give up? Self-improvement is exhausting. If all life is futile and then you die, why bother?

Yet...the message of this prayer can be read differently. This liturgical "Bonfire of the Vanities" burns away the unimportant and reveals the enduring virtues, the actions and attributes that not only mean something in this life, they mean everything, Power? Meh. Celebrity? Yawn. Intellectual Status? Big deal. Cleverness? So what?

The typical measures of accomplishment, money fame, status are of no use when the final bell rings.

What then, will endure? Let's go back to the original series of questions:

What are we? What is our life? What are we really? Not the PR version but emes, the essential impact of a human being on this earth.

Chayeyinu: Our life is the sum of our deeds, the joys and sorrow of our existence while we live.

Chasdeinu: Our goodness or kindness. Acts of goodness and kindness to people and animals matter.

Tzidkeinu: Our righteousness, fairness, doing what is right. Not to be confused with self-righteousness.

When we remain open to all life, with its blessings and sorrows, then we have lived fully. When we live in such a way that our acts of kindness and justice are remembered by others, then our life is of consequence. Fame and glory mean little. But acts of goodness and justice are everlasting. The kindness we return to our dead is that we highlight these good deeds and loving ways and let the rest recede into the shadows. We choose what to hold on to and what to release. Remembering our dead in this way becomes an ultimate act of kindness. In this way, we perpetuate a living chain of caring, of humanity and love that are rich and full measure to life; to theirs and to ours, and to those who will come after us.

A Yizkor Meditation in Memory of a Parent Who Was Hurtful

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grieve that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You, who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

May God's name be exalted and hallowed throughout the world that He created, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God's great name be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and worshiped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed may the Holy One be, praised beyond all song and psalm, beyond all tributes that mortals can utter. And let us say: Amen.

Let there be abundant peace from heaven, with life's goodness for us and for all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May the One who brings peace to His universe bring peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

A season is set for everything, a time for every experience under heaven:
A time for being born and a time for dying
A time for planting and a time for uprooting the planted
A time for slaying and a time for healing
A time for tearing down and a time for building up
A time for weeping and a time for laughing
A time for wailing and a time for dancing
A time for throwing stones and a time for gathering stones
A time for embracing and a time for shunning embraces
A time for seeking and a time for losing
A time for keeping and a time for discarding
A time for ripping and a time for sewing
A time for silence and time for speaking
A time for loving and a time for hating
A time for war and a time for peace.

— Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

A Man in His Life

A man doesn't have time in his life to have time for everything.
doesn't have seasons enough to have a season for every purpose. Kohelet Was wrong about that.

A person needs to love and to hate at the same moment,
to laugh and cry with the same eyes,
with the same hands to throw stones and to gather them,
to make love in war and war in love.
And to hate and forgive and remember and forget, to arrange and confuse, to eat and to digest what history takes years and years to do.

A person doesn't have time.
When they lose they seek, when they find they forget/ when they forget. they love, when they love they begin to forget.

And their soul is seasoned, their soul is very professional.
Only their body remains forever an amateur. It tries and it misses, gets muddled, doesn't learn a thing, drunk and blind in its pleasures and its pains.

they will die as figs die in autumn, Shriveled and full of themselves and sweet,
the leaves growing dry on the ground,
the bare branches pointing to the place where there's time for everything.
