FROM THE RABBI

“I AM HERE”

The way we pursue our goals is as important as attaining them. Our recent, successful Torah Renewal Campaign teaches us it is possible to raise needed contributions to fund our important missions in a way that teaches, affirms and celebrates the values we hold dear.

Huge thanks to all of our members and friends who gave; your generous support helped us meet and exceed our goal of $150,000 raised! Even more importantly, our goal to bring our people “Up Close and Personal with the Torah” was also realized. Through the inspired efforts, creative vision and eager participation of so many people, we experienced a year of connection, growth and learning. The enthusiastic voluntarism we witnessed increases our Emanuel Family’s capacity to grow and thrive in challenging times. Praise is due to leadership for suspending solicitation of gifts for months as we focused on emergency funds for Israel following the heinous October 7 attacks and ensuing war. Despite a shorter campaign season and the funds many people sent to Israel, the congregation stepped up and gave generously.

Kol Hakavod (kudos) to our Campaign Chairs Randie Fierberg and Tamar Margolis and their Committee and the staff, clergy and volunteers and our wonderful scribe, Rabbi Kevin Hale, who worked together to curate impactful learning experiences from Simchat Torah to Erev Shavuot. The Siyum Ceremony and Celebration was suffused with reverent, joyful and loving sentiment and spiritual feeling that reflect a Kehila Kedosha, a Sacred Community at its best. Rabbi Emeritus Philip Lazowski, inking the final letter, noted the word he completed was “Hinei” which means, “I am here!” What an appropriate culmination to a process in which so many of you stood up and said, “I am here!” when The Emanuel called.

May the Holy One bless our continued efforts with success. May we uphold the vision and values taught in our Holy Torah and may we go into the coming year with courage and kindness!

— Rabbi David J. Small

FROM THE PRESIDENT

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE, NOT JUST FOR NOW

The Board of Trustees, staff, and clergy are always looking to our future while continuing to meet the needs and interests of our community. We want to be financially stable and grow our membership. We are not alone in this desire.

Most synagogues own their buildings. However, owning a large space without a space sharer or renter is becoming increasingly difficult to manage financially. Many congregations are just beginning to talk about exploring leasing out space or moving to different, smaller spaces. We are ahead of the trend because we are already renting space to The Children’s Museum and Preschool.

Programming is another major area of change. In the past, programs were developed and people would come to synagogues for those programs. But, needs change and people are looking for meaningful gatherings, connections — not just programs. What does this mean? We have five great examples at The Emanuel right now!

1. Community Shabbat Dinners bring members, prospective members and the community together to share a meal, meet new people, and get to know one another.

2. The Book Club was started by our Membership & Engagement Committee, along with a congregant (Sheryl Levin), for people interested in discussing books. This group continues to meet and grow — and you can join anytime.

3. The Natalie Ziplow Study Group was developed many years ago out of a desire for people to study together. Though there is rabbinic leadership, this group really helps drive the learning and sharing and meets virtually every week.

4. The Israel Affairs Group grew out of our Israel 75 celebration. Speakers on a variety of Israel-related topics bring members and guests together to share their passion for the Jewish State through activities, shared learning experiences and much more.

5. The Monthly Chapel Minyan is a Hebrew-rich, lay-led alternative to the traditional egalitarian Shabbat service held in the sanctuary. No electronics or screens are used, and everyone enjoys the intimate setting.

The common themes for these examples are member-driven, contemporary, timely topics, and planning based on the desires of the group. All of this leads to creating meaningful connections around common interests. This is the wave of today!

I encourage each of you to think about what interests you — and how we can partner with you to make it happen at The Emanuel.

Do you want to host a Shabbat dinner in your home and meet new people and invite old friends? Do you want to join one of the groups already happening? Do you have an area of interest, and do you and some friends want to brainstorm how we can create something new within our community?

Please reach out to us! We need help from our members to create and run these meaningful gatherings, but the staff are here to help you!

KOLOT — VOICES FROM OUR MEMBERS

by Irene Mackey

Until Oct. 7, 2023, I am not sure I understood what being Jewish meant to me. This shift in perception might be resonating with many in our community who have witnessed a sudden surge of discussions and opinions regarding Israel, and the seemingly newfound religious fervor among Jewish individuals.

You might be wondering why so many of your Jewish acquaintances, who once remained silent on political matters, have become vocal and, some might say, “radicalized” in their views on Israel. The truth is, many young Jewish people, including myself, don’t consider ourselves particularly religious. We distance ourselves from the actions of political figures like Benjamin Netanyahu, and our Jewish identity might not have felt like a central aspect of our lives, until now.

However, recent events have forced a reckoning with our Jewishness. When faced with the rise of hostility and the disturbing calls for harm simply because of our bloodlines, a profound shift occurs. Colleagues who previously avoided political discussions now engage passionately. Friends who rarely post on social media suddenly share their thoughts. But it’s not a newfound religiosity; it’s a reaction to a world that, seemingly overnight, perceives us differently.

For many young Jewish individuals, our renewed connection to our Jewish identity is not rooted in religious practices or political affiliations. Instead, it is a response to the sudden realization that being Jewish, despite our personal beliefs, has become a significant aspect of our identity. When faced with threats and prejudice, it is only natural to seek strength in our generational connection.

This shift is not a testament to an ideological change but rather a consequence of external forces. It is a reaction to a world that has, unfortunately, allowed baseless hatred to invade our safe spaces. When every institution and organization we once trusted seemingly turns a blind eye, our Judaism becomes more than a cultural background; it becomes a shield against hate speech and potential violence.

So, while the world around us may continue to grapple with complex geopolitical issues, my hope is that this period of self-reflection prompts a broader understanding of Jewish identity — one that transcends political affiliations and allows for a more nuanced dialogue about who we are and who we aim to be in a world that often sees us through a singular lens.

In embracing our Jewishness, we navigate the delicate balance between the light and darkness that shape our identity. Let us find strength not only in our shared history but in our collective determination to challenge dangerous stereotypes and misconceptions. As we confront the challenges that come with being Jewish in a world that has historically left us out of the conversation, may this newfound connection to our identity become a catalyst for positive change within, and pave the way for a more inclusive and enlightened future for all.

2024 REPORT TO THE BOARD FROM THE CARING COMMITTEE

Dear Members,

I am pleased to provide an update on the recent efforts and activities undertaken by the Caring Committee to support our congregation members in times of need.

Our mission is to embody the Jewish value of chesed (loving-kindness) by providing compassionate support to Emanuel members facing health challenges, personal losses, and other difficulties. This aligns with the teaching from Pirkei Avot, “The world stands on three things: Torah, Avodah (service), and Gemilut Chasadim (acts of loving-kindness).”

To facilitate communication and coordination, we have created a Google Group named Emanuel Cares.

Since its inception, the Emanuel Cares Communication Group has successfully undertaken the following initiatives:

1. Support for the Sick: We have reached out to members who are unwell, offering emotional support and practical assistance. Our volunteers have made numerous phone calls to check in on their well-being and provide a comforting presence.

2. Transportation Assistance: Recognizing the need for transportation support, we have organized rides for congregants to attend High Holiday services, Synagogue functions as well as medical appointments. This service has been crucial for those without access to reliable transportation.

3. Meal Delivery: To offer comfort to those grieving the loss of loved ones, we have delivered homemade soup and challah. These gestures of kindness have been greatly appreciated and have helped to ease the burden during difficult times.

Outreach and Volunteer Recruitment

To sustain and expand our efforts, we are actively seeking additional volunteers to join our committee. We believe that with more hands on deck, we can increase the scope and impact of our support.

We would like to extend an invitation to the entire congregation to become part of this meaningful initiative. Members interested in joining the Emanuel Cares Google Group or learning more about our efforts can reach out to Ken Malley at malleyks@gmail.com.

Ken is coordinating our volunteer efforts and will be happy to provide more details and answer any questions.

We are committed to fostering a caring and supportive environment within our kebila. With the support of our membership, we are confident that we can extend our reach and make a significant difference in the lives of our congregants.

Thank you for your attention and continued support.

B'shalom,

— Ken Malley, Chair, Emanuel Caring Committee

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

PJP (Partners in Jewish Programming) presented a Zoom program in May by author Sheila Pallay, about her emotional encounter with a Torah rescued from the Shoah, now 250 years old, and how it affected her. Also, in May, Dr. Shira Billet spoke on Zoom about “How Jewish Philosophers Think about Troubling Traditions,” looking at how Jewish philosophers have attempted to resolve the contradictions and beliefs about what is right or wrong and how we ought or ought not to live. In a Zoom presentation rescheduled from February, Rabbi Dr. Haim O. Rechnitzer led us on an exploration of the opposing concepts of Judaism expressed by Martin Buber and Franz Rosenzweig and “what are we (Jews) to do?,” based on letters they wrote to each other in 1923. Professor Alan Dershowitz, who taught for many decades at Harvard Law School, gave a Zoom talk, moderated by Rabbi Michael Jay, titled “University Anti-Semitism Will Only Get Worse!” In addition, Dalia Ziada, an Egyptian writer and activist, discussed, “Navigating the Geopolitical Crossroads: Insights from the Middle East,” in a Zoom lecture at the end of June.

Rabbi Small facilitated discussions on current events in Israel, along with text study with the Natalie Ziplow Study Group Thursday mornings. He finished the year with an exploration of the Book of Job. In addition, Jerry Schwartz stepped in to provide stimulating teachings when Rabbi Small was not able to lead the class. Classes will resume in the fall. As always, all are welcome to join the group. Please contact Lisa Taylor, at lisat@emanuelsynagogue.org to receive the Zoom link.

Please check your weekly Emanuel Updates, the Emanuel Synagogue website, and the Emanuel Mishpacha Facebook page for information on upcoming programs and registration links. We remind you pre-registration is required for Emanuel Adult Education programs on Zoom in order to ensure a secure and meaningful experience. Participants must register on the link provided in the weekly Updates or on the Emanuel website. The actual Zoom link will be sent out to registered participants by email. It is helpful if your Zoom name and your registration name are the same or very similar so we can easily verify your identity.

Alan Mendelson, a longtime Emanuel member, was honored May 19 with the naming of the gym at the New England Jewish Academy (NEJA) as the "Mendelson Gym." This dedication exemplified Alan's love affair with basketball and his weekly ritual of playing pickup games for more than 40 years in the gym at the Hebrew Academy in Bloomfield.

More than 70 people attended the reception with another 45 on zoom from across the world. The surprise honor was made possible through the generosity of Alan's friends and family and his leadership gift. Alan spoke of his commitment to Jewish education and

GOLDBERG NEEDLEPOINT ON DISPLAY IN THE MITNICK CASES

The current exhibit in the Rose, David and Ralph Mitnick cases, located at the entrance to Koret Hall, showcases the needlepoint creations of Ronne Goldberg. Ronne had seen an article by the Hallmark Card Gallery in New York City that featured a stair runner with a design on both steps and backings. When Ronne and her husband, Arthur, moved to their home in East Rockaway, NY, they had a staircase that faced you when you entered the front door, so she decided to design and create needle-pointed backings with a Jewish theme. She worked on the staircase panels from 1968-72 as her three active sons were growing up. Then, as each of her sons approached his Bar Mitzvah, she made each of them a tallit bag with his Hebrew name and a plaid which was designed using the six numbers from his birth date (month, day and year) and six colors of yarn selected by the Bar Mitzvah boy.

Thank you to Ronne for sharing her beautiful creations and to her son, Emanuel member Eric Goldberg, for creating the display of her work. Be sure and stop by to see this unique example of Jewish art.

to the local Jewish community in general, especially for Trinity College where he was chairman of the Hillel Advisory Board for 25 years. In that capacity, along with his good friend and community leader and philanthropist Henry Zachs, they built and dedicated the Zachs Hillel House in 2002.

In his professional life, Alan worked for Aetna for 25 years and, in 1994, he launched Axiom Venture Partners, a venture capital firm. At the event, Alan spoke of his personal philosophy of life and expressed his loving admiration for "Saint Peggy," his wonderful wife.

News From The BROTHERHOOD

Shalom Emanuel Friends,

Happy Summer! As I write this message during the end of May, our brothers and sisters in Israel remain on the front lines of the war and antisemitism/antizionism have become widespread around the world and in our own backyard. I hope better days and peace are ahead for all.

Thank you to everybody who met the Brotherhood Challenge grant for the Torah Restoration Project. It was our pleasure to be able to donate the entire $5,000 to the Project by matching your gifts.

Congratulations to our very own Mickey Libbin and Peter Mehlman who have both been nominated as this year's Emanuel Brotherhood Keeper of the Flame recipients of the FJMC CT Valley Region award. Mickey and Peter, job well done! You both are well deserving of the award for all you have done during the years for the Brotherhood, the Emanuel and the local Jewish community. Mazel Tov! This year's recognition luncheon will be held on Sunday, Nov. 10, in West Hartford. Venue location and time to be announced soon.

The Emanuel Brotherhood is actively seeking new members for our Board. If you have the time and would like to contribute, please consider joining as we have a few positions open. We operate nearly all year round and prepare the food services for various events taking place at the Emanuel. It is a great way to schmooze, eat, learn, or catch up with friends and family. We hold our monthly meetings in-person at the Emanuel every second Monday of each month. Please also consider volunteering for the preparation for the various events and simchas that we sponsor. Mitzvah points are counted for all our volunteers.

I hope you all have a wonderful summer and plan to enjoy the outdoors.
