FROM THE RABBI

A PRACTICE OF HAPPINESS

“Be Happy — It’s Adar!” is the slogan for this season. Yet, what does it mean, “Be happy?”

Is “happiness” a temporary emotional surge of pleasure and positivity marked by dopamine in the bloodstream and other markers of well-being? A long-term “practice of happiness” involves a mindset and patterns of thought that are: 1) Joyful 2) Social 3) Habitual and 4) Progressive.

Joy can be more than a feeling we experience; joy can be a stance that we adopt every day. When we seek and embrace positive interactions, when we view our day as full of opportunity for “Hakarat HaTov,” or “recognizing and affirming the good,” we live in joy.

Positive social context promotes long-term well-being. We are social creatures; while we like to have our “space” from time to time, solitude is not our natural state. When Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai secreted himself and his son in a cave for years, the Talmud describes this social isolation as a transgression. When we associate with people who adopt a positive mindset, we find support for our own path. When we express and practice kindness and concern for others, we nourish our own souls.

Spontaneity gets more love than habit, which is derided as “rote.” But neuroscience states that “neurons that wire together fire together,” meaning that repeated thoughts and actions

FROM THE PRESIDENT

In the months since the October 7 attacks in Israel, antisemitic incidents in the U.S. have skyrocketed 360%, according to the Anti-Defamation League. American Jews are facing a threat level unprecedented in modern history with hate crimes, bomb threats, verbal and written harassment, and assaults, protests, and other antisemitic incidents on college campuses. Our lives and history will forever be marked by what happened on October 7, 2023.

The connection and bond we all feel with Israel and the heartache we experience brings us together as one people, one community. I have seen how we reach out to each other to give support whether we have immediate family in Israel, friends, or acquaintances.

From the moment we began to understand the atrocities unfolding in Israel, Rabbi Small guided us in prayer and conversation, delivering powerful messages and setting the tone to help us navigate the news of the horrific war as it was unfolding. This was followed by a series of moving Shabbat services, where special prayers, readings, and sermons were spoken to capture our mood, express our concerns, and to bring us together as one community.

- Emanuelites were well represented at a community vigil at West Hartford Town Hall.
- The Emanuel Synagogue hosted a community prayer vigil with more than 500 people in attendance.
- Volunteers set an empty Shabbat table to remember the hostages.
- Funds were raised to support Israeli soldiers in the field and to provide food for those in need through Leket Israel, The National Food Bank.

- We had a delegation at the March for Israel in Washington, D.C., as part of the largest gathering of Jews and allies in support of Israel.
- Educational programs were offered through our Adult Education Committee to keep our community informed. We partnered with JTConnect on how parents can talk to their college aged children and teens about Israel, Zionism, and world events.

The war is not over, and our support as individuals, as a congregation, and as part of the larger Jewish community must continue for as long as it is needed. Let's continue to come together as a community.

MAKE YOUR PLEDGE NOW TO HELP REPAIR OUR TORAHS

Our Torahs are our most precious possessions. They represent the guiding light of our history and of our sacred traditions. We owe it to our shul and our kehila to respect, honor and take care of these treasured scrolls. Twenty-two of our scrolls have been appraised and evaluated, and we are beginning repairs on March 3.

Our fundraising efforts have been nice and steady, but we still need your support in raising an additional $70,000 to reach our goal of $150,000.

On March 3, our Sofer, Rabbi Kevin Hale, will conduct up close and personal sessions with those who have already donated. You will have a once in a lifetime opportunity to participate in an intimate experience, to witness and be a part of the scribing process.

Please make your pledge now! Scan the QR code or go to the sponsorship form here.

THE CZECH MEMORIAL TORAH SCROLLS

“How a Torah Changed My Life Forever” was the topic of Sheila Pally’s January talk at The Emanuel as part of the Torah Restoration Project. Pally presented a slideshow of synagogues from the Czech Republic. She is the co-author of the book, “Light Beyond the Shadows: The Legacy of the Czech Torah Scrolls and the Renewal of Jewish Life in Czechia.” Dinner and dessert was served at the event.

From left, are Tamar Margolis and Randie Fierberg, co-chairs of the Torah Restoration Project; Sheila Pally and her husband Herb; and Lois Roman, who is on the board of trustees of the Memorial Scrolls Trust. MST has allocated Czech Torah scrolls to synagogues and organizations around the world. The Emanuel is home to two of these Torahs, rescued from the Holocaust.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

by Barbara Fink

As spring approaches we have the opportunity to see how the Jewish learning seeds we planted in September are beginning to grow — especially our Kitah Hay (5th grade), Vav (6th grade) and Gimel (3rd grade) students. Our Kitah Vav students have been reading Torah in our family services and 5th graders will read Torah for the first time in either the April or May service.

Our Kitah Gimel (3rd grade) students have been working hard putting together Hebrew letters and sounds and are well on their way to becoming fluent Hebrew readers! You will have the opportunity to kvell along with me and their families on Shabbat morning March 2 as they receive their first siddur! They will lead with confidence parts of the service as well.

Join me in wishing Mazal Tov to 3rd graders:

Elliot Blum, Dylan Gluck, Hannah Levine, Mason Secondino and Frederick Stein.

And new students: Julia Farber-Revoet, Gallyn Shved, Marianna Shved, Lea Spilberg, Brendan Gluck, Brayden Shved, Jamie Smolin, Zachary Levy and Nicholas Rodriguez.

Upcoming Family Programs:

March 2:	Tot Shabbat and Matan Siddur
March 10:	6th grade family program
March 15:	Shabbat Services and Dinner — 4th grade participation
March 24:	Community-Wide Purim Celebration
March 31:	NO RELIGIOUS SCHOOL
April 5:	Shabbat Services and Dinner — 6th and 7th grade participation
April 7-14:	NO RELIGIOUS SCHOOL
April 20:	Tot Shabbat and Family Services
April 28:	Pesach Field Day

‘TAKING HOLD OF TORAH’

Religious School 6th graders participated in a special family program in January, called “Taking Hold of Torah.” Torahs were placed on round tables and students and their families were shown different parts of a Torah. Students went on a scavenger hunt of the Torahs to search for their b’nai mitzvah portions. They also received their own personalized Tanach, thanks to The Emanuel Brotherhood and Judy Silver, who inscribed each book.

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

Welcome to our newest committee member, Allen Landerman, who joined us in January. Our 2024 programs began with a talk by Dr. Eitan Fishbane about the varied ways in which Jewish mystical thinkers have understood the nature and character of Divinity, exploring lyrical and symbolism-infused texts from the Kabbalah of 13th century Spain (especially that of the Zohar), the Kabbalah of 16th century Tzfat, to that of the spiritual masters of modern Eastern European Hasidism. In February, Dr. Eugene Sheppard spoke about Theodor Herzl, political Zionism and antisemitism. Rabbi Dr. Haim O. Rechnitzer led us on an exploration of the opposing concepts of Judaism expressed by Martin Buber and Franz Rosenzweig and “what are we (Jews) to do?” We traveled virtually to Jewish Egypt with Louise Arwas; to the Dutch island of Curacao with Ron Gomes Casseres; and to Jewish Portugal with Gloria Ribeiro. We also watched the first two of a three-part film series about the 1933 movie “Duck Soup” and the film, “The Jazz Singer: You Ain’t Heard Nothin’ Yet.”

Rabbi Small facilitated discussions on the current events in Israel, along with text study, with the Natalie Ziplow study group Thursday mornings. As always, all are welcome to join the group. Please contact Lisa Taylor at lisat@emanuelsynagogue.org to receive the Zoom link.

Coming Up:

Sunday, March 10, 1:00 p.m., on Zoom: Alan Niku, a filmmaker, writer and scholar of Mizrahi culture from San Luis Obispo, California, and a native speaker of Persian, who seeks to educate the world about the underrepresented cultures of the Middle East, will examine the lesser-known parts of the history of Jewish Iran, a vast story of prophets, autonomous nations, divergent sects, epic poetry, and political intrigue. The Jews of Iran have forged a culture at once Persian and Jewish, with traditions and aesthetics uniquely their own. Now in a second Diaspora in the United States and Israel, with a small population remaining in Iran, the community faces inevitable changes. He will use the knowledge of the Jewish Iran’s past to look to the future of the community and discuss how the unique heritage of Iran’s Jews can be preserved.

Thursday, March 14, 8:30 p.m., on Zoom: Dr. Michah Gottlieb, Associate Professor and Director of Graduate Studies in the Skirball Department of Hebrew and Judaic Studies at NYU will present “A Rabbinic Debate about Slavery on the Eve of the Civil War,” when Rabbi Morris Raphall of Congregation B’nai Jeshurun in Manhattan gave a sermon arguing that a civil war should not be waged over slavery since slavery was a biblically sanctioned institution. The Baltimore Rabbi David Einhorn responded with an essay excoriating Raphall for his terrible misunderstanding of the Bible. This session will discuss whether or not the Bible considers slavery legitimate.

Thursday, March 28, 8:30 p.m., John Kenrick will discuss the third of the film series, “Schindler’s List; Whoever Saves One Life Saves the World Entire”; How a broken briefcase led to the world learning about a philandering Nazi who saved more than a thousand

Thursday, April 11, 8:30 p.m., on Zoom, Dr. Andrea Dara Cooper, Associate Professor and Leonard and Tobee Kaplan Scholar in Modern Jewish Thought and Culture in the Department of Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, will consider how scholars and theologians have attempted to find a feminist space within the Jewish interpretive tradition, how contemporary approaches to gender analysis can allow us to understand the use of gendered terms in Judaism, and in what ways can Judaism be both challenged and revitalized by these approaches, in her talk about “Jewish Philosophy and Feminism.”

Please check our weekly updates, website, and Facebook page for information on upcoming programs. Reminder: pre-registration is required for Emanuel Adult Education programs on Zoom in order to ensure a secure and meaningful experience. Register using the link provided (the actual Zoom link will be sent out to registered participants by email). It is helpful if your Zoom name and your registration name are the same or very similar so we can easily verify your identity.

UPDATE FROM JTCONNECT: MARCH EVENTS AND TEEN PHILANTHROPY

by Marcus Fink

JTConnect has had another busy few months! In addition to our continued weekly program each Sunday for 8th-12th graders, in December we held our Spread the Light — Open Mic and Games Night to celebrate Hanukkah together as a community. In January, 36 teens and community members came together for a hands-on Social Action volunteering project at Midwest Food Bank in Manchester, and in early February, JTConnect and The Emanuel held a panel conversation for parents entitled, “You Think What?!” — talking about tough topics with your college age children & teens. Our panel featured Dr. Andy Magin, Lance Goldberg, Rabbi David Small and Kira Simon.

In our next update, we will share about our Teen Shabbaton that is taking place at Camp Ramah New England in early March concluding with our Pink Shabbat event at Nomads in South Windsor to learn about Sharsheret’s work about breast and ovarian cancer awareness. March is a busy month with a Dignity Grows Packing Event on March 17 and a community teen Purim event on March 23.

Looking ahead to May 2, JTConnect’s annual “Eat, Drink and Connect” event will take place at Congregation Beth Israel in West Hartford. We are excited to announce we will be recognizing Emanuel member Bob Fishman for his leadership in our community. Also at the event, hear from our inspiring teens! For more information on this event, visit jtconnect.org/celebrate.

Lastly, our Teen Leadership Philanthropy Initiative (TLPI) Emanuel cohort meets once a month. During their last session, the Emanuel cohort kicked off their fundraising efforts for their mission: To support environmental sustainability by cleaning the oceans to minimize pollution and help wildlife in New England. This TLPI cohort is guided by the Jewish values of justice (Tzedek) and dignity (Kavod). If you would like to support their mission, visit givebutter.com/tlpiemanuel24.

For more information about what JTConnect offers, visit jtconnect.org or contact Caroline Poland, Executive Director at caroline@jtconnect.org or 860.727.6157, or Marcus Fink, Communications Manager and Emanuel Site Coordinator, at marcus@jtconnect.org.

News From The SISTERHOOD

Thank you so much to all of the members of the Executive Board who have been so helpful in my first 6 months of service as Sisterhood President. None of what Sisterhood is able to accomplish could happen without this amazing group of women! Thank you to Linda Asmar, Jennifer Molinari, Carolyn Topol, Debbie Bettan, Debbie Mehlman, Bonnie Lasker, Arlan Lieblick, Madalyn Levy, Beverly Gans, Judith Kronick, Faith Helene, Cheryl Rosenbaum, Sue Bergman and Fern Cohen!

Thank you as well to all of our active members and to those who have joined us for the first time this year! I hope that as we head into Spring and Summer more of you will join us for an event. Please also feel free to reach out if you have any event ideas!

There is so much going on for Sisterhood in the coming months. Sisterhood Shabbat is scheduled for March 9 to align with International Women's Day (March 8). On April 14, we will also host a flower arranging event, during which every attendee will create their own beautiful arrangement to take home!

Keep an eye out for additional announcements and have a wonderful start to your Spring!

Be well,

— Rachel Arnett

Upcoming Dates:

March 9 @ 9:00 a.m. Sisterhood Shabbat

March 14 @ 5:00 p.m. "Get Healthy; Stay Healthy — Together!"

April 14 @ 10:00 a.m. Flower Arranging event

News From The BROTHERHOOD

Spring is almost here! Soon the days will be getting longer, and we will be able to enjoy nicer weather. Purim is also around the corner, and we will be preparing for Passover shortly thereafter.

I know that it has been a tough 5784 so far for all of us. It is just a matter of time before things will get better! Spring is a reminder of renewal and hope, which is good for the soul. My favorite holiday, Passover, is another new year or anniversary of our freedom out of Mitzrayim.

The Emanuel Brotherhood continues to serve our members and keep men involved in Jewish life. The Brotherhood has been hard at work with our signature events and food services for the simchas of our congregants. Please look at the calendar, the e-blasts, or direct Brotherhood emails for upcoming events.

Our well-regarded Brotherhood Shabbat will be held on April 13, 2024, Parashat Tazria. Please reach out if you would like to receive a special honor. As always, it should be a memorable Brotherhood Shabbat demonstrating our camaraderie and providing a fabulous kiddush.

Our annual Dinner with Hazzan Daniella Risan will be a Shabbat dinner on Friday, May 17, continuing the celebrations and spirit of Yom Haatzmaut from early that week. Special programming with our student cantor, Max Silverstone, will also be part of the evening.

An upcoming Sunday Breakfast with a guest speaker is also in the works.

Looking forward to seeing you at shul. Remember, new Emanuel members get a one-year free Brotherhood membership.

Stay well and be safe. Am Yisrael Chai!

self-reinforce. The more I embrace positive thoughts and act to help others and myself, the more I will be able to stay positive, and the more likely I am to stay on this path.

Progressive learning and growing fosters happiness. Improvement comes over time. When our repeated actions involve effort, trial and error, we experience a sense of accomplishment that lights up our spirits. The people I have known who are “young at heart” are especially open to learning and improving throughout their lives. Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel urges us to “live your life as a beautiful work of art.”

Suffering and woe exist; yet happiness is within our reach. We choose our stance in any situation. This Adar, “Just direct your feet/on the sunny side of the Street.” Happy Adar!

— Rabbi David J. Small
