FROM THE RABBI

RABBI SMALL GOES TO CAMP

Summer brings many wonderful activities; one of the best is Jewish summer camp. Fresh air, sports, fun, singing, and Jewish pride and spirituality abound.

My first experience with Jewish camp was in 1972 when my parents, with some help from Grandpa Small, sent me to Camp Ramah in Wisconsin. Although I was a bit homesick at times, overall, camp was a joyful and life changing experience.

I learned to read Torah, build model rockets, practice Junior Life Saving, how to paddle a canoe, play “shesh-besh” (backgammon) and chess, how to pray the weekday morning service, and how to say “please pass the pancakes” in Hebrew. I made friends with some of the other campers, like Jay (z”l) from Columbus who introduced me to authors like Martin Caidin and Isaac Asimov, and Benjie from Los Angeles (now an Orthodox rabbi) who taught me to talk like Donald Duck. We went camping in the North Woods, studied the laws of Shabbat, and mounted a Hebrew version of “Winnie the Pooh” as a musical play (I operated the spotlight). During six years as a camper and many more years on staff, I experienced profound identity formation and had meaningful experiences while growing as a person and in my Jewish life.

I still have connections with people I met at Jewish camp, as a camper and as a staff member. I went on to

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 9!

The Siyyum for our Torah Restoration Project on Sunday, June 9, will mark the culmination of our “Up Close and Personal” Sacred Legacy Project. Rabbi Kevin Hale, along with members of the congregation, will complete the final letters of the Torah which we have been repairing at the “Side by Sides.”

After 18 months of planning, perusing, assessing and appraising, it is time to rededicate our Sifrei Torah and spring them back to life as kosher scrolls.

We have had two side by side scribing sessions to date, with two more to come in May. The experience has been indescribable.

Rabbi Hale has fascinated us with anecdotes of his experiences with his beloved scribing mentor Eric Ray. He has shown us scrolls that are more than 300 years old, a scroll from Yemen written on tanned deerskin. He showed us his tools of the trade — how to sharpen a goose feather to create a quill. Rabbi Hale’s warmth and charisma provide for a once in a lifetime experience getting up close and personal with our most treasured possession, the Torah.

Please join us on Sunday morning, June 9, starting at 9:30 a.m., to celebrate our 22 beloved Sifrei Torah! (Visit emanuelsynagogue.org and read our eblasts for more information as the date gets closer.)

FROM THE PRESIDENT

At the 2023 Annual Meeting, I spoke about creating moments of connection, insight, elevation, and pride.

It was my hope that through these four areas we would see positive and meaningful outcomes of enhanced membership experiences, closer relationships, increased commitment and volunteerism, and personal growth. It is not just about showing up...it is about partnering to create something bigger. It is about creating meaningful moments of joy, understanding, reflection, and kindness, both individually and as a congregational community.

I want to give you an update.

Staff, lay leaders, and clergy have been working hard to organize events, enhance spiritual experiences, provide educational, social justice, and volunteer opportunities.

Creating moments of elevation are experiences that change our expectations and break the script from our everyday lives. I have seen elevated moments in our Religious School when they partnered with the Torah Restoration Project to present an interactive, hands-on family program called Torah, Tefillin, and Me.

I feel connected when we have music at Friday night services and at Havdalah and when we come together for community Shabbat dinners.

I have been elevated through our engagement programming when we hosted “Dueling Pianos,” where proceeds supported summer camp grants for our children, and a “Groovy Purim,” where we sang and danced the evening away with a Beatles tribute band.

I have been empowered and reflective during moments of insight when I have had conversations with clergy, staff, congregants, and lay leaders that have stretched my thinking and perspective.

I have heard positive feedback from participants in Chapel Minyan, Community Conversations during Kiddush, Book Group, Mah Jongg lessons, and the Torah Reading class with Hazzan Risman. Our Adult Education offerings have awakened and broadened our understanding of contemporary and timely topics.

The Emanuel Synagogue has many proud moments of being a strong, vibrant Conservative congregation. Moments of pride as we stand with Israel, committed to her existence and future. Show your pride by volunteering to serve on a committee or volunteering for a one-time project. We are forming a Hospitality Committee to recruit and place volunteers as well as Door Greeters for services, events, and High Holy Days.

In a world of Facebook, Instagram, and TikTok, where connections are brief likes, emojis, and photos — moments of connections can be difficult. Our clergy and staff truly value and care about each of us. Think about how you can be part of these moments, how you can contribute time and deepen your relationship with the synagogue...and with others.

— Reesa F. Olins

Status of Security Infrastructure Projects — FEMA Nonprofit Security Grant Program

All five of the FEMA 2022 security projects are complete and operational:

1. Digital Security Camera System
2. Courtyard Security Fence with manual gates
3. Security Bollards to protect the Window Wall of the Silverman Auditorium
4. Multi Carrier Cell Phone Booster System for the interior of the building
5. Chapel Window Protection

Building Security System Upgrade and Automation of Courtyard Fence Gates

This project consists of upgrading the main controller for the Building Security System to allow expansion of capacity for the remote lock release function to extend to the fence gates under conditions warranting locking of the gates. Gates will also be fitted with operators to provide ADA access. Equipment is on order. Installation is expected in the April/May time frame.

Thank you to Tom Mastronarde for his work on the FEMA Security Grant upgrades.

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

This spring, we traveled virtually to Jewish Iran with filmmaker, writer, and scholar of Mizrahi culture, Alan Niku. Dr. Michah Gottlieb spoke on Zoom about a debate waged before the civil war over whether or not the Bible considers slavery a biblically sanctioned institution. John Kenrick presented a discussion of the third in this year's film series, "Schindler's List." Dr. Andrea Dara Cooper gave an overview of how scholars and theologians have studied feminism within Jewish tradition, how gendered terms can be understood, and how these ideas can challenge and revitalize Judaism.

Rabbi Small facilitated discussions on the current events in Israel, along with text study with the Natalie Ziplow study group Thursday mornings. In addition, Jerry Schwartz stepped in to provide stimulating teachings on a few occasions. As always, all are welcome to join the group. Please contact Lisa Taylor, at lisat@emanuelsynagogue.org to receive the Zoom link.

COMING UP:

• Thursday, May 2, 8:30 p.m., on Zoom: Sheila Pallay will reprise her earlier presentation at The Emanuel in a further talk entitled, "How a Torah Changed My Life Forever," which tells the story of her emotional encounter with a Torah rescued from the Shoah and how it affected her. She spent three and a half months in the Czech Republic visiting synagogues that once housed the Holocaust Torahs (now housed in our synagogues) and photographing what is left after the Shoah. She and Julius Müller collaborated on a book, Life Beyond the Shadows, The Legacy of the Czech Torah Scroll and the Renewal of Jewish Life in Czechia.

• Thursday, May 9, 8:30 p.m., on Zoom: Dr. Shira Billet, Assistant Professor of Jewish Thought and Ethics at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, will discuss "How Jewish Philosophers Think about Troubling Traditions." They are "troubling" when they conflict with other strong beliefs we hold, be they epistemic beliefs about what is true or false, moral beliefs about right or wrong, or political beliefs about how we ought or ought not to live. She will look at methods that Jewish philosophers have articulated in attempting to resolve these contradictions, and gain insight into the history and practice of Jewish philosophy.

Dr. Shira Billet

• Thursday, May 30, 8:30 p.m., on Zoom: Rabbi Dr. Haim Rechnittzer of Hebrew Union College, will discuss, "What is Judaism? The Dispute Between Martin Buber and Franz Rosenzweig." In 1923, Rosenzweig wrote an open letter to Martin Buber titled "Die Bauleute" (The Builders), a letter that later became a central part of Rosenzweig's Jewish theological legacy. In "The Builders – Concerning the Jewish Law" Rosenzweig accuses Buber that despite liberating "us" from the shackles of 19th century academic objective engagement with "Judaism" and opening our minds and hearts to seek the "inner power" of the Jewish tradition, he failed to answer the crucial existential question "what are we to do?" That is, Buber's answer left the question of Jewish praxis, of Halachah, outside of the realm of possible answers. Buber provided a non-halachic answer, arguing that the "truth" of Judaism lies in its religiosity, not its manifestation as a religion, or as Law. This session will be dedicated to the exploration of these two opposing concepts of "Judaism" and in fact, of the ever-present existential question of "what are we (Jews) to do?"

Please check your weekly Emanuel Updates, the Emanuel Synagogue website, and the Emanuel Mishpacha Facebook page for information on upcoming programs and registration links. We remind you that pre-registration is required for Emanuel Adult Education programs on Zoom in order to ensure a secure and meaningful experience. The actual Zoom link will be sent out to registered participants by email.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

by Barbara Fink

A Kehilah Kadosha, a holy community. When I hear that phrase I think about my Emanuel kehilah. I think about how we cultivate our kehilah each day. I think about the successful programs such as the opening day Religious School breakfast, Pizza in the Hut, the Haunted Shul, our Simchat Torah, Chanukah and Purim services and parties, Torah, T'filln and Me, Kibbitz and Nosh every Thursday, and all of the Shabbat dinners and Kiddushes. I think about the amazing learning that went on during our B'nai Mitzvah family series for our 6th and 7th graders. I think about how our 3rd graders learned to read enough Hebrew that they can lead T'filot in the Sanctuary on Shabbat. How our 5th and 6th graders read Torah in our family services. I think about how we have made Judaism come alive for our kids and their families. I think about how many Shabbatot and chaggim we spent together praying and how much we have enjoyed each other's company. This school year has been amazing, and it is all because of our amazing Emanuel Kehilah Kadosha.

I must thank all of the families for their support, for sharing their children with us and for helping to create this Kehilah Kadosha.

None of this could be possible without our amazing faculty. They have all been challenged to find more meaningful ways to engage our students each week, and I truly believe they have succeeded. They continue to seek out knowledge on their own time and constantly ask how can I do this better? They support and love each of the students as their own. I am fortunate enough to work with each one of them. I can't thank the outstanding faculty of our Religious School and our early childhood programs enough: Sarah Baden, Rachel Blustein, Sarah Cohn, Fern Cohen, Ruth Cion, Doron Feller, Nancy Fichman, Lance Goldberg, Mira Klein, Jennifer Molinari, Beckie Sahl, Karen Schlossberg, Jenna Schmukler, Rabbi Small, Cantor Risman, Max Silverstone, Janice Barshay and Gail Mackey.

While, the religious school would not run without our teachers, our teachers are helped each week by a group of amazing teenagers. They come eager to help and do things from making copies to creating games for the classes to play to working with small groups of kids or one on one. Thank you to our teen aides who bring so much enthusiasm each week and are great role models to the younger kids: Milo Cohen, Adam Diaz Matos, Hannah Fink, Barak Goldberg, Abigail Kropsky, Hannah Leef, Ryan Leef, LJ Magalhaes, Aaron Malley, Alanna Malley, David Medvedovski, Jonah Resnick, Max Resnick, Jonah Rosenberg and Jonah Schulman.

I wish you all a great summer, and I look forward to another year of learning with the Emanuel kehilah!

Elizabeth Smolin and Sydney Rudnick work on their Torah readings.

Hayley Levine and Leora Smith wear their coats of many colors after learning about the biblical Joseph's coat.

News From The SISTERHOOD

I have been a member of Emanuel since 1985. I attended Hebrew School here, ran through the halls and into the babysitting room here, and became a Bat Mitzvah here. Prior to becoming a Bat Mitzvah, I experienced a number of the usual milestones in my Jewish life: first Tot Shabbat, first Break Fast, first seder and of course, first time watching the movie "Yentl."

I didn't follow the romantic subplot of the film because I was so young, but I still remember being so confused about why Yentl's studying of Torah began in secret. Much later in my life, my grandmother, who was a Sisterhood President in the 1970s, sobbed openly when she heard my mother — a former Emanuel Sisterhood President — read from the Torah for the first time on my sister's Bat Mitzvah. It took me years to gain insight into some of what she might be feeling that day.

As long as there have been Jewish women, there has been a place for Jewish women in ALL facets of Jewish life. For generations, women in Jewish communities were seen in a very specific, very narrow way. They were allowed to engage with Judaism in some ways but restricted from others.

I think of Ray Frank, the daughter of Polish immigrants living in California. She became a teacher of Bible studies and Jewish history. While visiting Spokane, Washington in 1890, she was invited to give a sermon during Kol Nidre services. She is widely credited with beginning to convince the established Jewish authority to consider ordaining women as rabbis.

I think of Henrietta Szold, the founder of Hadassah, who was admitted into the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1904, but only if she promised not to attempt to be ordained.

I think of Regina Jonas, the first woman in the world to be ordained as a rabbi. She was ordained in 1935, in Germany. Her sermons continued behind the barbed wire of Theresienstadt from 1942-1944, until her deportation to Auschwitz.

I think of Annie Fisher, an educator with roots in Russia who worked in and around Hartford, and who worked with a group of other women to start the Emanuel Synagogue Sisterhood in 1919.

In addition, I think of my great-grandmothers and grandmothers and my mother and my sister and her little one on the way.

The Women's League for Conservative Judaism, and our Sisterhood, is an organization of Jewish women founded with the express purpose of "Engaging, Enriching and Empowering Women." Today's service is an example of what we are capable of. But it is only an example. We are capable of much more.

This year's Sisterhood Shabbat coincides with International Women's Day. The campaign theme for International Women's Day 2024 was "Inspire Inclusion," highlighting the need for intentional efforts to be made in diversifying leadership in private and public arenas. People of all genders belong on the bimah, and they belong in all places and in all rooms where decisions are being made that affect their lives.

Something many may not know about Women's League is that as an advocacy organization, they have posted resolutions on a number of important topics. I encourage you to visit their website to learn more about Women's League stances on everything from LGBTQ+ rights, Women's Reproductive Health and even fracking. It has been fascinating to read resolutions dating back as far as 1950, when the Women's League came out against the Subversive Control Act and called for the abolishment of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Thank you to everyone who participated in services for Sisterhood Shabbat and in Sisterhood events in the past year. We hope to see even more of you at events in the next year.

— Rachel Arnett

News From The BROTHERHOOD

Shalom Fellow Congregants,

Thank you to all our volunteers for Brotherhood events this past year.

The Emanuel Community Shabbat Dinner on May 17 will be prepared and led by the Brotherhood. This year, the dinner will be in conjunction with our Annual Brotherhood Musical Dinner with Hazzan Risman. The theme is Yom Ha'atzmaut with an Israel theme for Kabbalat Shabbat and dinner. Additionally, this will be Student Cantor Max Silverstone's last week at the Emanuel before he is ordained at JTS. Think of it as a 3-1 event and open to all! There will be delicious food and great musical sounds to usher in Shabbat. See you there!

Stay well and be safe. Am Yisrael Chai!

serve as a bunk counselor and theater and swim staff and Rosh Mayim, Head of the Waterfront. Years later, Debbie and I spent many happy summers staffing Camp Ramah in New England, where I taught Jewish Studies, served as an adjustment counselor and found my most happy place as a swim instructor on the agam (lake). I am serving this summer as a swim instructor at Ramah to highlight the importance of Jewish camp and for my own soul and well-being. I love the energy and community dynamic at camp. In important respects, we strive to create a similar energy right here at The Emanuel.

The Emanuel Scholarship Fund and the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund provide Camperships to help ensure every Emanuel family who wishes to give their children the gift of Jewish camp will be able to do so. Emanuel families may choose any qualified Jewish camp, including: Ramah, Laurelwood, Eisner Camp, Camp Shalom and other Jewish overnight and day camps. Please contact me for further information.

Please join us Friday evening, June 7 for a "Summer Camp Send-off" as part of our evening Shabbat Service and Community Dinner.
