Yizkor for Victims of Oct. 7, 2023

One year since the evil onslaught of October 7, war continues to burn, lives continue to be lost, hostages suffer in captivity and evildoers remain at large. The Simchat Torah attacks join a set of calamities mourned by our people for all generations to come. The Yizkor service was created 800 years ago, in the aftermath of slaughter, as Jewish communities in the Rhine Valley mourned their loved ones murdered in pogroms and Crusader attacks that bear hideous resemblance to the assault we witnessed in Israel last Simchat Torah. The Yizkor service confers honor and remembrance on those who died. We who survive mourn the dead, affirm courage, and resolve in the face of hatred and brutality. We ask that their souls be gathered “bitzror ha-chayim,” the “bundle of life” a “profound concept of an eternal, timeless community in which the living and the dead are alike embraced.” As we, the living, rise to recite Yizkor, on our holiest days let us stand with our dead and remember them that they may survive in our hearts. We enfold their souls in our love and seek comfort in this hour of communion with them. May the Holy One grant us the strength and courage to fight evil, live with integrity and uphold the highest values of our people, embodied in the lives of our loved ones whom we remember, now and forever.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure whose radiance is like the heavens to the souls of all of those who perished, citizens of Israel and citizens of countries around the world, Am Yisrael, and all who dwell on earth, who were killed, who were murdered, who were strangled, and bombed, who were tortured and who were raped, beaten and tormented, and were cruelly slaughtered on that fateful Simhat Torah. And the souls of the defense personnel, the Israeli police, the defense forces, the emergency squads, the observers, and the IDF, who gave their lives as Heroes of Israel.

May their memories be a blessing and may they rest in paradise.

Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. Adonai is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say:

Amen.

Yizkor: Making the Connection

Yizkor is a request, directed to the Holy One, to remember our loved ones. In the act of asking G-d to remember, we ourselves perform a powerful act of loving memory. Why ask the One who remembers everything to remember? Does G-d need a reminder? Why not simply say, "I remember"? By using this form, we emphasize that the act of loving memory is on behalf of our beloved. While it gives us comfort, we say their names and ask G-d to remember them for their benefit and for their honor.

Yizkor is our way of staying connected with our departed. Jewish culture values improvisation and constant invention; we also find great meaning performing the same action — with love and purpose — again and again. Yizkor is one of these important repeated actions. Our loved ones' names are on our lips — Yom Tov after Yom Tov, year after year — as long as we have the breath within us to utter their names. When we keep faith with them in this way, we accord our dead an earthly immortality. They live on in our actions as well as in our hearts and minds.

One important way to honor the memory of our loved ones is to give a contribution in their memory. This gift is a true act of loving-kindness; we keep alive our loved one's name through performance of this sacred and important task. This is what our Sages meant when they taught, Tzedakah tatzil mimavet, "Charitable giving saves from death." Giving in memory of our dead saves them from oblivion by affirming their memory among the living through good deeds.

These generous acts to and for our dead elevate us and refine our hearts. When we honor and love the people who touched our lives, we honor and love the Creator of us all.

The Yizkor book is a time-honored Jewish practice. We hope that this book brings comfort to those who mourn and honor our departed, whom we remember with love.

Love is Strong as Death

Shir HaShirim, Song of Songs declares: Love is strong as death as mighty as Sheol.

Its darts are darts of fire, a blazing flame.

Vast floods cannot quench love, nor rivers drown it (8:6-7).

Our Yizkor prayers, our loving memory practiced over years attests to the undying devotion we feel and express to our loved ones.

May this moment and their memories and above all our love for them inspire us to live better lives.

יְהוָה מֶה־אָדָם נִתְּנָעַד הוּא־אָנוֹשׁ וְתִתְּשִׁבְחָה־
Eternal One, what are mortals that you regard them?
What is humanity that you take account of it?

We are like a breath,
Our days like a fleeting shadow.

Psalm 144

We are like new-grown grass;
in the morning it flourishes and sprouts afresh,
in the evening it is cut down and withers.

לִמְנוֹת יְמִינֵנוּ כִּן הַזָּרָע וְנַבְאָ לְבָב חֲכָמָה:

So teach us to number our days
that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Psalm 90

שְׁמַר־תָּם וּרְאָה יְשָׁר בַּי־אַחֲרִית לְאִישׁ שָׁלוֹם:

Psalm 37

God will receive me.

Psalm 49

The dust returns to the earth as it was,

We remember them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Sylvan Kamens and Jack Riemer

Eternal God, in whose eyes a thousand years are but as yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every soul is precious.

O Lord, from whom we come and to whom we return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate this hour to the memory of our departed.

A Yizkor Reflection: What Does It All Mean?

On the High Holy Days we confront the temporary, contingent quality of life. We ask ourselves, “What will remain after me when I die?” “What does it all mean” In the Amidah of Yom Kippur, we ask:

“Mah anachnu? Mah Chayeiinu? Mah Chasdeinu? Mah Tzidkoteinu? Mah Yisheinu? MahKocheinu? Mah Gvuroteinu?

What are we? What is our life? What is our goodness? What is our righteousness? What is our achievement? What is our power? What are our victories?

The litany of “Mah....Mah....Mah....” hits us like a series of body blows. Unrelenting, the words bludgeon out of us any residual pridefulness that might stand in the way of sincere repentance.

Illusions of glory ring hollow, pretense and status shatter before us:

Heroes count as nothing in your presence, famous people are as if they never existed, the wise seem ignorant, and clever ones as if they lack reason....all is vanity.

How depressing! If so, why don’t we just give up? Self-improvement is exhausting. If all life is futile and then you die, why bother?

Yet...the message of this prayer can be read differently. This liturgical “Bonfire of the Vanities” burns away the unimportant and reveals the enduring virtues, the actions and attributes that not only mean something in this life, they mean everything, Power? Meh. Celebrity? Yawn. Intellectual Status? Big deal. Cleverness? So what?

The typical measures of accomplishment, money fame, status are of no use when the final bell rings.

What then, will endure? Let’s go back to the original series of questions:

What are we? What is our life? What are we really? Not the PR version but emes, the essential impact of a human being on this earth.

Chayeyinu: Our life is the sum of our deeds, the joys and sorrow of our existence while we live.

Chasdeinu: Our goodness or kindness. Acts of goodness and kindness to people and animals matter.

Tzidkeinu: Our righteousness, fairness, doing what is right. Not to be confused with self-righteousness.

When we remain open to all life, with its blessings and sorrows, then we have lived fully. When we live in such a way that our acts of kindness and justice are remembered by others, then our life is of consequence. Fame and glory mean little. But acts of goodness and justice are everlasting.

The kindness we return to our dead is that we highlight these good deeds and loving ways and let the rest recede into the shadows. We choose what to hold on to and what to release. Remembering our dead in this way becomes an ultimate act of kindness. In this way, we perpetuate a living chain of caring, of humanity and love that are rich and full measure to life; to theirs and to ours, and to those who will come after us.

A Yizkor Meditation in Memory of a Parent Who Was Hurtful

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grief that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You, who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

May God's name be exalted and hallowed throughout the world that He created, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God's great name be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and worshiped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed may the Holy One be, praised beyond all song and psalm, beyond all tributes that mortals can utter. And let us say: Amen.

Let there be abundant peace from heaven, with life's goodness for us and for all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May the One who brings peace to His universe bring peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

"They Made The Supreme Sacrifice"

The Emanuel Synagogue lovingly remembers the departed of Beth Hillel Synagogue. As one congregation, we continue to honor all our departed and to preserve their legacy in loving memory. The names formerly recorded in the Beth Hillel Memorial Book are fully integrated in this Book of Remembrance. May their memories endure as a blessing.

Reflections

Any love that depends on something, else [when] the thing is gone, the love is gone. But [unconditional love] that does not depend on something else will never come to an end.

— Mishna, Abot 5:16

Things that are over do not end. They come inside us, and seek sanctuary...and there they live on, in the consciousness of individuals and communities.

— Leon Wieseltier

From the illumination of our souls, flashes of light will shine on the world. These meanings will all together fill the world with abundance.

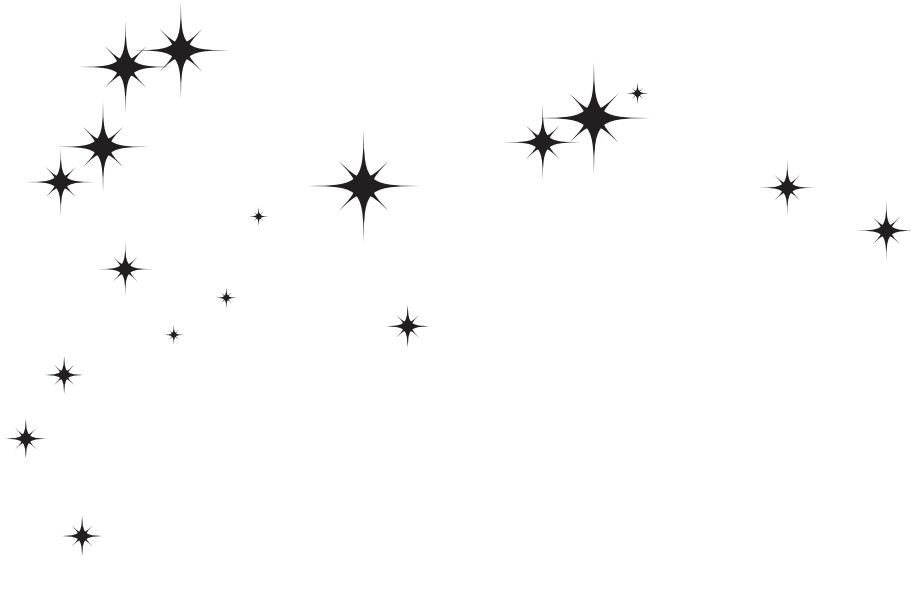

— Abraham Isaac Kook

I am beginning to think that in this tradition it is almost impossible not to find forgiveness. There is nobody for whom there is not a way home.

— Leon Wieseltier

I will change their grief to gladness. I will console and cheer them after their sorrow.

— Jeremiah 31:13

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for us the path.

— Hannah Senesh
