

MONICA & LEE GOLD

MONICA began her professional career locally in 2001, joining the advertising sales team at The Jewish Ledger, where she worked for four years. While home raising her and Lee's two boys, Jack and Adam, Monica volunteered with many Jewish and secular agencies.

Among her achievements, Monica twice co-chaired Play for A Cure, a golf and tennis tournament, at Tumble Brook Country Club that was the largest contributor to Susan G. Komen in Connecticut outside their own walk for the cure. She served on the Board of the Mandell JCC, co-chaired the Aiken Elementary School's Gala, chaired The Emanuel Synagogue's Membership Committee and was a member of the Board of West Hartford Little League.

Monica currently volunteers her time at Kingswood-Oxford School in a variety of ways where Jack graduated from in 2023, and where Adam is a junior. She currently serves on the KO Parent Association and most recently co-chaired their Leadership Dinner. Monica also volunteers with Voices of Hope, Jewish Family Services, and is a member of Grassroots Jewish Women of Connecticut.

LEE presently serves as Chair of the Chabad of Greater Hartford and a Board member of the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford, where he is the Chair of Men's Engagement. He also serves on the Kingswood-Oxford Board.

Lee served as the minority leader on the West Hartford Town Council (2019-2021). He has been on the Board of Directors for Tumble Brook Country Club and was the President of Talcott Glen Condominium Association. Lee also served as a member of the Board of Trustees for The Emanuel Synagogue.

A lifelong Connecticut resident, Lee attended Kingswood-Oxford School, earned his J.D. from UCONN School of Law and is the Managing Partner at Butler Norris & Gold.
