On a narrow bridge
swaying over an abyss.
The wind howls. Each step matters. One small slip could spell the end.
How will I make it to the other side?

We live on a razor's edge. We never know what life will bring. What is the answer? I freeze, momentarily, unable to move ahead. I breathe, feel my heart galloping within me. My head starts to spin. My hands grip the rough ropes of the bridge, lest I plummet over the side.

Reb Nachman of Breslov taught, "All the world is a narrow bridge and the essential thing is not to fear at all."

When we seek meaning, we can compose ourselves, motivate ourselves and move forward once more. Victor Frankl wrote, "When one finds one's 'Why,' then it becomes possible to discover one's 'How'" During his time in Auschwitz, Frankl held the vision of his beloved wife, from whom he was separated by the Nazis, before himself every day. Her image motivated him to find a way to endure every hardship and outwit every threat. He focused on organizing people around him to help and encourage the most vulnerable in their midst.

Each of us, if we open our hearts and our minds, can find our own purpose, discover our own "Why" And collectively, we can reinforce that sense of purpose and seek the "How's" together.

As one of our Seventh Grade Kitah Zayin students wrote this spring:

"The people we are, are made by the people around us. Our personalities are shaped by our experiences and way of life. We are social creatures who are always being influenced."

Each of us made the choice to be part of this kehillah kedoshah (Sacred Community). Belonging to The Emanuel Synagogue helps each of us connect with a group of human beings who are nourished and guided by our beautiful Jewish Tradition. The tenets, customs, practices and values we share help us find meaning. When we manifest these values and guidelines through our actions, we gain strength, vitality and a sense of identity. We make ourselves a true community.

Few of us expected that these times would be so full of challenges to our identity, our safety, our sense of comfort in the world. And yet, we are blessed with the rare and special opportunity to create and sustain a communal culture of caring, of prayer and learning, of celebration and fun, of pride and commitment to Israel and the Jewish Community, of mutual support through the challenges, large and small, of life (and death). Each Shabbat I look out and I am reminded of hundreds of personal stories when I see your faces, people of all ages coming together. This spiritual home gathers all these precious souls, your souls, under our roof. A place where each person's stories may be cherished and honored. A place where we gather to seek our "Why's" shape our "How's" and cross the narrow bridge together.

As we approach the great Festival of Shavuot, the culmination of the School Year and the beginning of Summer, May the Holy One continue to bless us upon our way and grant us the strength to forge ahead!

—Rabbi David J. Small

SERVING THE GREATER HARTFORD JEWISH AND INTERFAITH COMMUNITY

Michael P. Weinstein / Morton L. Weinstein

Member of the Jewish Funeral Directors of America

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Please look for the notice of our Annual Meeting in this edition of the newsletter. Our officers, board members, chairs and committee members tirelessly dedicate their time and energy serving the needs of our beloved synagogue.

We are privileged to have a group of highly dedicated lay leaders serving in many capacities. They are more than just decision-makers, they are passionate advocates and ambassadors, working to ensure that the important work of the synagogue is carried out within a dignified and responsible fashion. Their collective experience provides diverse perspectives that are important to be heard.

Why do these volunteers step up? Many find that giving back and being a part of something greater than oneself is a deeply fulfilling experience, strengthening one's connection while building a stronger Emanuel Synagogue for future generations. Being part of a team that collaborates with clergy, staff and our congregants feels personally rewarding. Whether creating educational or social programs, supporting fundraising initiatives, or helping those in need within our synagogue and in the wider community, these lay leaders play a crucial role in enriching the lives of many.

I would like to personally extend a heartfelt thank you to our incredible Board members who are cycling off after six years, but continuing to volunteer their time, wisdom and caring in many valuable and rewarding ways: Gail Adler, Lara Bomzer, Meyer Frankel, and Meredith Smith. Thank you for your hard work and unwavering dedication.

I hope you will join us in recognizing the work of our Board of Trustees at our upcoming Annual Meeting on Tuesday, June 24th at 7:30 PM. It will be a wonderful opportunity to express your appreciation, meet new board members, and learn more about the important initiatives we are working on.

FROM THE CANTOR

Welcome to Spring!

In Israel right now the wild flowers sprinkle the fields across the country with bright splashes of reds, purples, yellows, and whites almost too vibrant to describe, and the trees are beginning to transition from flower to fruit.

Pesach marks the beginning of this transformation from being in Mitzrayim - a place of narrowness- to the full bloom and liberation of Spring. In Israel, Lag BaOmer, 33 days later is full of singing, dancing, and joy. Spring is truly upon us!

Much like the Mediterranean climate of Israel where I was born, California, where I grew up, is in similar bloom. In my childhood, I remember playing in fields of tall yellow flowers as far as the eye could see. I cannot tell you if this memory is from the Galilee or the San Francisco Bay Area.

Though Pesach has already passed, for many in California displaced by the fires earlier this year, Mitzrayim, the narrow place from which we celebrate our liberation, is not just a metaphor. Victims of the fires remain displaced, with homes and jobs lost. Renewal is a matter of rebuilding - long and arduous, and often from scratch.

I hope you will join me on May 15th, Lag BaOmer, at 6:15 for "California Dreaming," a musical benefit for Victims of the LA Fires and Friends in Deed and a celebration of the renewal that Lag BaOmer marks.

Proceeds will go to Friends In Deed, an interfaith non-profit in Pasadena.

Friends In Deed provides critical assistance to those affected by the fires. Visit here: <https://friendsindeedpas.org/mission-vision-and-values> to learn about the broad scope of their work, and visit here <https://friendsindeedpas.org/eaton-fire/> to learn more about their work specifically focused on victims of the Eaton fire.

"California Dreaming" will feature the jazz-rock fusion of Hot Tonic, Cantor Talya Smilowitz, Cantor Joseph Ness leading his choir Kol Zahav, members of our Emanuel family, and of course me, your Cantor. You'll hear songs from Gershwin, to the Mamas and the Papas, to Red Hot Chili Peppers. This show is not to be missed!

News From The BROTHERHOOD

Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood: A Season of Dedication and Celebration

The Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood continues to demonstrate incredible commitment and teamwork across events and initiatives. Let's celebrate their achievements and express our gratitude for their unwavering dedication to our community!

We look forward to this year's Brotherhood Shabbat on May 3, a meaningful opportunity for unity and spiritual reflection. A heartfelt thank you to Ken Simon for graciously preparing to lead the Shabbaton as lay Rabbi. His inspiring leadership and generosity of spirit are deeply appreciated and help bring the essence of Brotherhood to life.

Generous donations have also been received for the Yellow Candle Fund, supporting Holocaust education in honor of Yom HaShoah on April 23. If you've already donated, we sincerely thank you for your support and commitment to this vital cause. Should you find yourself able and willing, please consider making an additional donation—every contribution makes a difference in preserving memory and promoting education for future generations.

Mark your calendars for two upcoming Brotherhood events:

Volunteer Dinner – Tuesday, June 10

A heartfelt opportunity to recognize the hard work and dedication of all our volunteers. The Brotherhood is proud to play a pivotal role in organizing this event, ensuring that everyone who contributes to our community feels celebrated and appreciated.

Karate Demonstration with Syd Schulman – Sunday, June 8 at 11 a.m.

This exciting, family-friendly demonstration will be followed by a delicious breakfast/brunch. Whether you're a martial arts fan or just looking for a fun way to spend your Sunday morning, this event promises to entertain and inspire.

The Emanuel Synagogue Brotherhood exemplifies the spirit of community and fellowship. Thank you to all the Brothers, members, and volunteers for your contributions, and to everyone who continues to support our initiatives. We're proud of all we've accomplished together—and excited for what's to come.

— Ken Malley

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

by Barbara Fink

A Kehilah Kedosha, a holy community. When I hear that phrase I think about my Emanuel Kehilah. I think about how we cultivate our kehilah each day. I think about the successful programs like the opening day Religious School breakfast, Pizza in the Hut, the Haunted Shul, our Simchat Torah, Chanukah and Purim services and parties, The Matzah Factory, Havdalah and the Night Sky, Shabbat Storytime, Kibbitz and Nosh every other Thursday, and all of the Shabbat dinners and Kiddushes eaten. I think about the amazing learning that went on during our B'nai Mitzvah family series for our 6th and 7th graders. I think about how our 3rd graders learned to read enough Hebrew that they can lead T'filot in the Sanctuary on Shabbat. How our 5th and 6th graders read torah in our family services. I think about how we have made Judaism come alive for our kids and their families. I think about how many shabbatot and chagim we spent together praying and how much we have enjoyed each other's company. This school year has been amazing, and it is all because of our amazing Emanuel Kehilah.

I must thank all of the families for their support, for sharing their children with us and for helping to create this Kehilah Kedosha.

None of this could be possible without our amazing faculty. They have all been challenged to find more meaningful ways to engage our students each week and I truly believe they have. They continue to seek out knowledge on their own time and constantly ask how can I do this better? They support and love each of the students as their own. I am fortunate enough to work with each one of them. I can't thank the outstanding faculty of our Religious School and our early childhood programs enough:

Sarah Baden, Sarah Cohn, Fern Cohen, Doron Feller, Nancy Fichman, Joshua Gladstone, Lance Goldberg, Mira Klein, Debbie Mehlman, Jennifer Molinari, Beckie Sahl, Karen Schlossberg, Rabbi Small, Cantor Risman, Alex Friedman, Janice Barshay and Gail Mackey.

While the religious school would not run without our teachers, our teachers are helped each week by a group of amazing teenagers. They come eager to help and do things from making copies to creating games for the classes to play to working with small groups of kids or one on one. Thank you to our teen aides who bring so much enthusiasm each week and are great role models to the younger kids:

Spencer Beatman, Milo Cohen, Adam Diaz Matos, Hannah Fink, Barak Goldberg, Abigail Kropsky, Hannah Leef, LJ Magalhaes, Aaron Malley, Alanna

Malley, David Medvedovski, Jonah Resnick, Max Resnick, Jonah Rosenberg, Jonah Schulman, and Maddie Stein.

Without these people, nothing is possible. They give their all to everything they do. They try new things to make learning fun for our kids and really excel at everything. Kol Hakavod to them for a successful year of learning!

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

by Ona Mastronarde

May and June programs from the national Partners in Jewish Programing consortium are listed below. The Exploring Judaism class will meet Wednesday, May 21st and Wednesday, June 18th, both at 7:30 PM. The Exploring Judaism class has been meeting for about one year, studying topics from "Who is Rich" to "Make for Yourself a Teacher". You are invited to come to their Siyum, June 18, as they celebrate completing Pirkei Avot, and plan their next year of study. For more information, please contact JeremyRubock@gmail.com. The Natalie Ziplow Study Group, led by Rabbi Small, will continue Thursdays at 10:30 AM, on Zoom, with study and discussion of current events and traditional texts. New members are always welcome. Please contact Lisa Taylor at lisat@emanuelsynagogue.org to receive the weekly Zoom link.

Coming up:

Thursday, May 15 @ 8:30 PM: Don Seeman, Associate Professor, Department of Religion and the Tam Institute for Jewish Studies at Emory University, will discuss "A Constitution for Israel", referencing the writings of Rabbi Isaac Halevy Herzog, the first Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi of the State of Israel. His writings include three volumes entitled "A Constitution for the State," in which he struggles to find a formulation that meets the needs of a modern democratic state and is also faithful to Jewish law and tradition. This includes consideration of political rights and participation for non-Jewish citizens of the state, issues of gender equality and discussion of the place of Jewish law within a Jewish and democratic polity. The current constitutional crisis in Israel makes it worthwhile to reconsider what he had to say at the very founding of the State of Israel and why he thought the existential crisis of the Jewish people demanded a new paradigm.

Thursday, May 20, 8:30 PM: Screen to Stage: Films That Became Broadway Musicals: John Kenrick will discuss screen projects that now inspire many of the latest stage musicals, examining how far back this "new" trend goes, and the surprising answers.

Thursday, May 27, 8:30 PM: In the third in the John Kenrick series, he will discuss The Ten Commandments: Who Am I, Lord, That You Should Send Me? A non-Jewish director and cast created this beloved big screen depiction of Moses leading the Jews out of slavery in ancient Egypt.

Sunday, June 1, 7:15 PM: Torah Study for Erev Shavuot. Engaging learning with our local community partners in Koret Hall. Coffee and cheesecake will be served.

Membership and Engagement

Are you a new member or one that has been here for awhile? Are you looking for something new, want to meet other members or reconnect with your synagogue community?

JTCONNECT UPDATE

by Marcus Fink

JTConnect at The Emanuel has been having an amazing year. We are currently in the middle of our 4th & final term of this school year. Our current classes are "Ask the Student Rabbi" with Alex Friedman, "Kabbalah and Yoga" with Mindy Levy, Cooking through the Holidays with Erica Bloch and "Real Talk: Inspiring Career Stories from Amazing Jewish Community Members" with Lance Goldberg.

It is never too late to come give a JTConnect class a try or come to one of our many exciting JTConnect events! JTConnect is open to 8th-12th graders. Synagogue membership is not required. Our Emanuel site meets on Sunday mornings from 10:30 am - 12:00 noon. We start with a snack followed by two periods of classes where teens choose what they would like to learn. March and April were busy months for JTConnect. For Purim, we held a Purim Party Bus where 2 buses of teens stopped at 4 synagogues (including one East of the River stop!) where teens participated in various activities on and off the buses! It was a great night!

On Sunday, March 23rd, we held a community wide Taste of JTConnect for 7th graders from throughout the community. 7th graders and parents learned about JTConnect, 7th graders participated in classes on their own as well as with our JTConnect @Emanuel teens and had the opportunity to ask current teens about their experiences.

On April 6th, we participated in Good Deeds Day with Hartford Hillel. We had ice breakers, a lesson plan, participated in a Dignity Grows Pack, had an indoor BBQ and took a tour of the campus! Coming up from June 1-2 is our community-wide SNL program (Shavuot Night Live) where we will start at The Emanuel Sunday night and study and have activities all night long at Young Israel and from June 16-20, 2025, our annual Summer of Service (SOS) program for incoming 7th-12th graders is taking pace! We participate in social action programs in the morning and various fun activities in the afternoon. Spaces are limited!

For more information and to register for SOS, visit jtconnect.org/sos. To learn about all that JTConnect offers, please contact Marcus Fink, Emanuel Site Coordinator and JTConnect Communications Manager at marcus@jtconnect.org or visit our website at jtconnect.org.

News From The SISTERHOOD

Excerpted from the President's Greeting from Sisterhood Shabbat 2025:

From the moment we open our eyes each day, we are reminded of the power of connection. We are all part of a community—a network of support, love, and shared responsibility.

In difficult times, when we face personal challenges, communal strife, or global uncertainty, the importance of connection becomes even more profound. It is during these moments that our bonds of sisterhood take on an even deeper significance. In times of hardship, the support we offer one another isn't just a comfort—it becomes a lifeline. We remind each other that we are not alone, that we can weather storms together, and that our collective strength is far greater than any individual struggle.

In Jewish tradition, we know that “kol yisrael arevim zeh lazeh”—all of Israel is responsible for one another. This principle extends beyond our relationship with our immediate families to our broader communities and the Jewish people worldwide. When we face hardship, it is this sense of interconnectedness that helps us endure and grow. Whether it's offering a listening ear, sharing a meal, or lifting up one another in prayer, these acts of solidarity make us resilient. They nourish our spirit and remind us that, even in our most trying moments, we are supported by an unbreakable chain of connection, love, and faith. The work of the Women's League for Conservative Judaism and Sisterhood are essential because it reminds us that Jewish life is not just for the individual; it's about the collective strength of the community. It encourages women to take on leadership roles, whether in synagogues, schools, social justice work, or other avenues of Jewish life, and it recognizes that when women lead, everyone benefits.

In times of difficulty, let us be reminded that the connections we build today will sustain us through tomorrow. Together, we are a force that cannot be broken, and together, we will continue to elevate Jewish life, ensuring that the future is bright for all who follow. As we look around this room, we see a group of women united by one powerful commonality, yet each of us brings a rich diversity of experience. We come from different professions, different family structures, and different chapters of life.

But despite all our differences, one thing remains unwavering: our Sisterhood. Think, for a moment, about all that Sisterhood has endured. I invite you to pause and truly reflect on the highs, the lows, and the challenges of the past 106 years—both in the United States and in our own community.

We stand together today, supported by the spirit of those who are no longer with us. And we will continue to stand together—no matter the shifting political tides, no matter the state of the world. Sisterhood will endure. Emanuel will endure. The Jewish people will endure. Thank you to every single person involved with Sisterhood Shabbat, especially to Carolyn Topol and Fern Cohen, our co-Chairs, and to Rabbi David Small, Hazzan Moshe Pinchover, and Hazzan Daniella Risman for all your guidance, help, and support.

Thank you to all of the incredible, powerful Sisterhood women who participated in Sisterhood Shabbat, on or off the bimah.

Thank you. Be well and be kind. And in the words of my grandmother, “that's all.”
